Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To preserve and maintain for the public benefit Morecambe Bay Prawners, boats built by Crossfields and Kindred Vessels (including replicas) in sailing condition or otherwise as part of the heritage of Great Britain.

To advance the education of the public including young people for public benefit as to the historic, social and cultural role of Morecambe Bay Prawners, other boats built by Crossfields and kindred vessels in the seagoing heritage of Great Britain and to provide training in the practise of the traditions and skills of seamanship involved in the sailing and maintenance of Morecambe Bay Prawners , other boats by Crossfields and kindred vessels, including providing support for young people

The trust now owns Spray a Morecambe Bay Prawner built in 1896. We aim to renovate Spray into sailing condition and educate the public about the role these boats had in the regional fishing industry during the 19th and 20th centuries.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
