AD OMNIA RENOVANDA TRUST

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES for the year ended 31 March 2025

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

Ad Omnia Renovanda Trust (AORT), operating as The Everything Network, exists to equip and encourage people to serve society and renew culture for the good of all through the foundation of the Christian faith.

Significant activities

Clear evidence of impact emerged throughout the year. Engagement across Supper Clubs and leadership activities remained consistently high, and the formation of new working groups demonstrated the network's increasing maturity and influence. The Everything Conference also saw heightened visibility and public engagement through social media and digital channels, helping extend its reach beyond those physically present at the event.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm they have complied with their duty under section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. During the year, the charity's activities benefitted emerging and senior leaders, church communities across the UK, civic leaders, professionals, and members of the general public. The charity's work contributed to the development of virtuous leaders, encouraged civic engagement, and provided accessible teaching and resources rooted in the Christian faith. Participants reported applying their learning in workplaces, churches, and community settings, and several initiatives and cultural conversations arose from content shared at events and through the network. These outcomes demonstrate clear and tangible public benefit flowing from the charity's activities.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The charity ended the financial year in a healthy financial position, in line with our reserves policy to ensure responsible and sustainable operation. Expenditure remained focused on programme delivery, staff capacity, and the ongoing development of the charity's events and operational infrastructure. Any surplus funds form part of our longer-term plan to invest in the continued growth of the organisation, strengthening our programmes, expanding capacity, and supporting the next phase of development.

Reserves policy

The trustees set a target of maintaining reserves equivalent to three months of operating costs, a target that was successfully met during the year. The trustees reviewed the reserves policy over the course of the year to ensure it remains appropriate as the organisation continues to grow and expand its activities.

FUTURE PLANS

Everything is standing at an important transition point in its history. Having become a charity in November 2023, it has the opportunity to grow and develop substantially in order to achieve its founding mission of catalysing the cultural transformation of a nation that is essential for each generation. With the foundations now in place, the team are focussing on generating sustainable sources of income to support the charities activities and impact.

Looking ahead to the 2025/26 financial year, AORT plans to continue expanding its activities and presence in the UK. Key areas of development include: doubling the size of the existing network of senior leaders; growing the Everything Conference attendees by 50% year-on-year; increasing our expanding the church network to represent 3,500 churches nationwide; and training an additional 50 emerging leaders through a one year programme for leaders in the first ten years of their careers.

Together, these will position Everything to deliver long-term, scalable impact: shaping leaders, strengthening the community, and contributing to cultural renewal for years to come.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

All trustees were appointed upon the incorporation of the company on 24 March 2023.

Induction and training of new trustees

Trustees were directed towards The Essential Trustee - government guidance and resources for trustees - and offered optional training with Stewardship. The Trustees are all regularly engaged with the work of AORT, and plan to meet for Trustee meetings once per quarter.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF AD OMNIA RENOVANDA TRUST

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Ad Omnia Renovanda Trust ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of the Association of Accounting Technicians, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
