

H&K Forever Foundation has not this financial year used the charity name, accessed grants or fundraised.

We as a charity that has been created in memory of our children that have passed away are still continuing to research out goals and outcomes.

We will update accordingly when we have a clear objective.