ANNUAL REPORT

During 2024, RBC Community Care continued to host the Collier Row & Romford Foodbank at its distribution centres at Romford Baptist Church, The Ascencion Church Hall in Collier Row and The Wykeham Centre at St Edward's Church in the Market Place, Romford.

We have continued to rely greatly on the donations of food and money from all our donors together with the large stores who provide us with their regularly-given food supplies. However, as continues to be experiences across most towns in the UK, the need for food and the reliance on the foodbank outstrips the food which is either donated or purchased. A campaign was run at harvest time but the charity has continued to meet the shortfall between the demand and the donations, by purchasing food on a weekly basis.

We remain grateful to all our volunteers who assist at the distribution centres on a week-by-week basis and to Rachel Chemnjo for all that she contributed and achieved in her time as the Foodbank Co-Ordinator. We wish her well for all her future endeavours. We have now appointed a new Co-Ordinator in 2025 and we look forward to seeing what God has in store for the foodbank in the year ahead.
