Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 01.08.2023 Period start date To 31.07.2024 Period end date

Charity name: UK Telugu Brahmin Community

Charity registration number: 1205566

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The charity's purpose is to advance the Hindu religion and culture for the public benefit, with particular reference to the Telugu Brahmin community. This is achieved through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Providing Brahmin priests to support Hindu communities with religious rituals and ceremonies;</li><li>• Promoting Vedic education that supports Hindu religious practices;</li><li>• Organising workshops and events focused on the Telugu and Sanskrit languages, hosting religious events in those languages, and publishing relevant educational materials and resources for people of Telugu origin and their families in the UK.</li></ul> The charity operates solely for purposes that are charitable under UK law.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the year, UKTBC delivered a range of charitable activities that directly support its objects, including the advancement of Hindu religion and culture, provision of Vedic education, and promotion of Telugu and Sanskrit languages. Notable projects included daily online Vedic classes (Project Suprabhatham), free language instruction for children (Project Balamukundam), and dharmic festivals and rituals under Project Shiva Sankalpamastu. These activities provided public benefit by increasing access to scriptural knowledge, preserving cultural heritage, enabling religious participation, and fostering community cohesion. The charity's work was funded by donations and small participant contributions, and carried out entirely by volunteers, ensuring inclusivity and wide community engagement.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit when exercising their duties and in planning the charity's activities. They have ensured that the charity's programmes and operations are designed to further its charitable purposes and to deliver demonstrable public benefit, particularly through access to Vedic education, religious ceremonies, cultural preservation, and community engagement.

Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	During the reporting period, the charity did not make any grants to individuals or organisations. At present, UKTBC does not operate a formal grant-making programme. The trustees will consider grant-making only where it clearly aligns with the charity's stated purposes — such as advancing Hindu religion and culture, supporting Vedic education, or enabling religious activities — and where the public benefit can be clearly demonstrated. Should a grant-making policy be adopted in future, the trustees will establish appropriate criteria, approval processes, and monitoring mechanisms to ensure transparency, accountability, and alignment with the charity's objectives and the Charity Commission's guidance.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	The charity did not make any social investments or programme-related investments during the reporting period. At present, UKTBC does not operate a social investment programme. Should the trustees consider social investments in the future, such decisions will be made in line with the charity's objects, the Charity Commission's guidance, and in a way that ensures both the advancement of charitable purposes and responsible use of charitable funds.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	UKTBC is a volunteer-led organisation, and its activities throughout the year have been made possible by the significant and dedicated contributions of its volunteers. While no monetary value is included in the accounts for volunteer time, the trustees

		recognise that volunteer support is essential to the delivery of the charity's objectives. Volunteers contributed to a wide range of charitable activities, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Teaching Vedic and language classes (Project Suprabhatham and Project Balamukundam)</li> <li>• Coordinating and performing rituals and ceremonies (Project Shiva Sankalpamastu)</li> <li>• Supporting event logistics, food preparation, and administration</li> <li>• Editorial and design support for the VipraVaani bilingual magazine</li> <li>• Managing community engagement across WhatsApp sub-groups focused on dharmic education, food culture, pilgrimages, and priest coordination</li> </ul> These efforts have directly supported the charity's income-generating activities and outreach. In the financial year, donations and legacies totalled £5,116, and income from charitable activities amounted to £5,360. These achievements reflect the strong commitment of UKTBC's volunteer base and their role in delivering clear public benefit through the charity's programmes.
Other		Future Plans: UKTBC plans to expand its reach through additional language workshops, regional dharmic events, and digital publication initiatives. The trustees are exploring sustainable ways to grow volunteer capacity and extend the impact of current programmes such as Suprabhatham and VipraVaani. Volunteer Acknowledgement: The trustees gratefully acknowledge the significant contribution made by over 60 active volunteers across the UK, whose dedication makes the delivery of all events and classes possible. Cultural Impact: The charity plays a unique role in preserving Telugu Brahmin traditions in the UK diaspora, promoting both classical values and community integration through inclusive, family-friendly programmes. Environmental Awareness: UKTBC promotes Satvik (vegetarian) food practices and mindful consumption during events, contributing to health and sustainability.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The UK Telugu Brahmin Community (UKTBC) has made significant progress in delivering on its charitable objectives, primarily focused on advancing the Hindu religion and culture, supporting Vedic education, and promoting Telugu and Sanskrit language and literature. The charity's initiatives have been implemented through a wide array of structured projects and community-focused services that collectively deliver measurable public benefit and foster a sense of cultural identity, continuity, and community cohesion. <hr/> Project Suprabhatham  Project Suprabhatham is a daily online initiative offering Vedic classes to the Hindu community, with around 30 learners participating regularly. The course includes sacred Vedic texts such as Rudram, Pancha Sooktamulu, Purusha Sooktam, Mantra Pushpam, and more, taught with traditional explanations (Bhashyam). The program has helped learners build a strong foundation to perform Hindu rituals, ceremonies, and daily spiritual practices (nitya anushtanam), and is particularly valuable for those aspiring to become priests. It also supports community festivals, promotes volunteering in rituals, and distributes Vedic literature. Classes are held daily from 6–7 AM via Microsoft Teams, with only a £5 admin fee.  In line with SORP paragraphs 1.17 and 1.19, this project supports two of the charity's core objects: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Providing Brahmin priests to support Hindu communities with rituals and ceremonies; and</li> <li>2. Delivering Vedic education that supports Hindu religious activities.</li> </ol> This initiative delivers a clear public benefit by making traditional scriptural learning accessible, nurturing the next generation of priestly scholars, and preserving sacred Vedic knowledge. It strengthens community engagement in religious life, enables inclusive participation, and supports the continuity of dharmic practices in the UK context. <hr/> Project Balamukundam  This project provides free online language classes for over 200 primary and secondary school children, teaching Telugu and

		Sanskrit with the support of 30 dedicated volunteer teachers. Weekly classes promote structured learning, with students showcasing their progress in an annual cultural event that includes performances and recitations. The programme ensures continued interest in Telugu and Sanskrit languages among UK-based children of Telugu origin. Telugu is the 6th most spoken language globally, while Sanskrit remains the classical foundation of the Telugu community's spiritual identity. In line with SORP paragraphs 1.17 and 1.19, this project supports the charity's object to: Promote and advance education in Telugu and Sanskrit languages and literature, including workshops, cultural events, and publication of educational resources. The public benefit is evident through freely accessible cultural and language education, community bonding, intergenerational knowledge transfer, and the preservation of important linguistic and scriptural heritage. <hr/> Project Shiva Sankalpamastu This thematic initiative is dedicated to Bhagawan Shiva (Rudra), representing Parameshwara in the Trimurti. It focuses on organising and supporting Shiva-centric dharmic religious events throughout the year. UKTBC facilitates rituals, festivals, and spiritual gatherings by offering access to trained priests, volunteers, and religious resources. Notable events under this initiative in 2024 included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maha Shivaratri (08.03.2024): An all-night Spiritual Gathering involving Chanting and Bhajans from 6 PM to 6 AM featuring Mahanyasam and Rudrabhishekam. Trained ritviks chanted Namakam and Chamakam while devotees fasted and participated in devotion. Event Expenses: £626</li> <li>• Maha Meru Lakshmi Prana Pratistha Mahotsav (15–16.03.2024): Consecration of a 300 kg Pancha Dhatu Sri Chakra Maha Meru Yantra and Adi Shankaracharya Vighraha. Vedic students from UKTBC participated in elaborate rituals including Mahanyasa Poorvaka Rudrabhishekam and Navavarna Pūjā.</li> <li>• Sri Rudra Homam (27.04.2024) in Milton Keynes: Conducted by Veda Pandit Sri Siddhartha Sarma, this Homam drew over 100 participants</li> </ul>

		and included fire rituals for Loka Kalyanam, followed by a community meal. Event Expenses: £354 These events reflect the core object of providing Brahmin priests and preserving Vedic traditions. The public benefit includes spiritual enrichment, cultural continuity, and community unity through dharmic worship. <hr/> Chandi Homam (23.06.2024)  UKTBC co-organised a spiritually significant Chandi Homam with the Dharmasankalpam group in Hounslow. Over 350 devotees participated in this sacred fire ritual, led by renowned Vedic scholar Dr. Vamshi Krishna Ghanaapathi. The event involved chanting 700 verses from the Devi Mahatmyam and making over 700 offerings (aahutis) into the consecrated fire for Loka Kalyanam. To comply with fire regulations, a large marquee was installed to ensure safety. Registered Seva Kartas actively performed Kalasha pooja and other rituals, while general attendees participated spiritually and received prasadam. A traditional satvik lunch followed. Event Expenses: £3,635 This event furthers the charity's religious objectives and provides public benefit by facilitating inclusive access to traditional Vedic worship, spiritual upliftment, and community participation. <hr/> Seetharama Kalyanam (06.05.2024)  Held in Rugby, West Midlands, this divine wedding of Sri Sita and Rama attracted over 400 participants during the historic year of Ayodhya Rama Pratistha. Conducted by priests following the Bhadrachalam tradition, the event included a beautifully decorated Pelli Pandiri, soulful Rama Sankeertanas, and a community rendition of Ramadasu Nava Ratna Kritis. Children enjoyed outdoor activities, and the event concluded with a vibrant Bhajana Sampradaya Utsavam and saatvik bhojanam. This celebration promoted dharmic values, cultural continuity, and devotional unity. <hr/> Project VipraVaani  VipraVaani is an ongoing bilingual magazine in Telugu and English, aimed at sharing dharmic knowledge, Vedic philosophy, and cultural narratives. Two issues released in January and May 2024 included articles by scholars, spiritual leaders, and community members, reaching over 5,000 readers. In line with SORP guidelines, this project supports the charity's objects by advancing education in Telugu and Sanskrit and

		promoting Hindu culture. The public benefit includes intergenerational learning, scriptural access, and cultural preservation. <hr/> Additional Community Activities  Several sub-groups within the UKTBC community WhatsApp platform deliver continuous engagement and education: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ‘Brahmana Vantalu’ promotes awareness of Satvik Brahmin food and its spiritual significance.</li> <li>• Bhagavad Gita Study Group fosters daily reflection and understanding of Hindu philosophy.</li> <li>• ‘Bharat Pilgrimages’ shares sacred travel insights and builds cultural connection.</li> <li>• ‘Telugu Priests’ facilitates quick coordination among Purohits to meet ritual demands.</li> </ul> These digital initiatives further support the charity’s objectives by enhancing accessibility, encouraging spiritual growth, and strengthening the UK Hindu community.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	During the reporting period, the trustees are pleased to confirm that UKTBC has made substantial progress toward delivering on the key charitable objectives as outlined in the charity’s governing document and registration with the Charity Commission. The achievements of each project reflect targeted outcomes aligned with the charity’s founding aims. Objective: To provide Brahmin priests to support Hindu communities with rituals and ceremonies  ➤ Achieved through the organisation of major dharmic events such as Maha Shivaratri, Sri Rudra Homam, and Prana Pratistha ceremonies, with trained Brahmin priests and ritviks leading the rituals. Coordination via the Telugu Priests WhatsApp group has also improved availability of priestly services for community requests. Objective: To provide Vedic education that supports Hindu religious activities  ➤ Achieved through daily online classes under Project Suprabhatham, preparing learners to understand and perform rituals (nitya anushtanam), and providing foundational knowledge for those training as future priests.

		Objective: To promote and advance education in Telugu and Sanskrit languages and literature ➤ Achieved through Project Balamukundam, which offered weekly online instruction to over 200 children, and an annual cultural event to reinforce learning outcomes. This objective was further supported by the publication of Project VipraVaani, which featured bilingual articles, poetry, and reflections from both youth and elders. Objective: To promote Hindu religion and culture with particular reference to Telugu Brahmins ➤ Successfully realised through the curation of culturally significant events such as Seetharama Kalyanam and Chandi Homam, both of which were well-attended and enriched community understanding of Telugu traditions within the broader framework of Sanatana Dharma. Each activity conducted has contributed meaningfully to both community engagement and public benefit. The trustees will continue to evaluate project outcomes against strategic objectives to ensure alignment, relevance, and long-term impact.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	During the reporting period, the charity did not place specific emphasis on additional or external fundraising activities. All funds received were generated organically through voluntary donations, modest admin fees, and nominal contributions from participants, which were used solely to mitigate the direct costs of events and programmes. UKTBC's approach remains rooted in accessibility and community participation. All major events — including Vedic rituals, educational programmes, and publications — were either free of charge or offered at minimal cost to beneficiaries. Fundraising was not pursued as a separate strategic objective but was integrated within the delivery of charitable activities. The trustees are satisfied that the funds raised were used effectively to meet the charity's programme objectives, with financial planning ensuring that no beneficiary was excluded due to cost.
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	The charity does not currently hold any investments and has not pursued an investment strategy during the reporting period. All funds received have been used directly in support of charitable activities or

		retained as short-term reserves in standard bank accounts. Accordingly, there is no investment performance to report for this period. The trustees will keep this position under review and may consider adopting an investment policy if it becomes relevant to the scale or scope of the charity's operations in the future.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the reporting period, the charity had a closing bank balance of £3,830. The trustees are satisfied that the financial position of the charity remains stable and sufficient to meet its immediate operational needs and commitments. All income received during the year — including £5,116 from donations and legacies and £5,360 from charitable activities — was applied towards delivering the charity's core programmes and objectives, including religious events, Vedic education, language instruction, and cultural publications. The charity continues to operate a low-cost, volunteer-led model, ensuring that funds are used efficiently and that participation in its activities remains accessible to all. No loans or external debts were held at the end of the period. The trustees regularly monitor income and expenditure to ensure good financial stewardship and intend to maintain a modest reserve to manage future commitments and support planned charitable activities.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The trustees have adopted a prudent approach to financial management and have agreed to maintain a modest level of reserves to ensure the charity can meet its short-term commitments and continue to deliver core activities without disruption. As at the end of the financial year, the charity held reserves totalling £3,830. These are unrestricted funds available to support the ongoing delivery of the charity's objectives and to ensure financial stability. Reserves are held primarily to:

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Support the continuity of essential religious and educational programmes in the event of unforeseen funding shortfalls or delays in income;</li> <li>• Cover upfront costs for events and activities (such as venue hire, pooja materials, and catering) before donations or contributions are received;</li> <li>• Provide financial stability for future project planning.</li> </ul> The trustees regularly review the level of reserves to ensure they are appropriate to the scale and nature of the charity's operations. As UKTBC does not employ staff or hold long-term liabilities, the current reserve level is considered adequate.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£3,830
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Not applicable – the charity holds reserves.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	No funds were materially in deficit during the reporting period.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	There are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue as a going concern. The trustees are confident that the charity has sufficient resources and support to continue its operations for the foreseeable future.

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	UKTBC's principal sources of funds during the reporting period were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Voluntary donations from members of the community;</li> <li>• Modest registration/admin fees for specific programmes (e.g. Vedic classes under Project Suprabhatham);</li> <li>• Event-based contributions (e.g. Homa Seva Kartas offering nominal amounts to cover logistics and venue costs);</li> <li>• Occasional sponsorships and in-kind support provided by volunteers or community supporters.</li> </ul> The charity did not engage in formal fundraising campaigns or apply for institutional grants during the period. All funds received were directly tied to the delivery of charitable activities and used to mitigate associated costs. This community-led funding approach ensures that UKTBC's events and programmes remain inclusive and

		accessible , with no commercial motive. The trustees remain committed to financial transparency and stewardship while preserving the charity's focus on dharmic service and cultural education
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	At present, UKTBC does not hold any long-term financial investments, nor has it adopted a formal investment strategy. All income received is applied directly to support the delivery of the charity's activities, and surplus funds are retained in standard UK bank accounts to ensure liquidity and security. The charity has also not engaged in any social investments or programme-related investments during the reporting period. However, should the trustees consider investment opportunities in the future, they will ensure that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Any financial investments are made prudently and in accordance with the charity's objectives;</li> <li>• Any social or programme-related investments clearly align with the charity's purposes and deliver measurable public benefit;</li> <li>• Appropriate risk management, ethical considerations, and compliance with Charity Commission guidance are in place.</li> </ul> The trustees review the financial position periodically to assess whether the development of a formal investment or reserves strategy is warranted based on future growth or changing operational needs.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	Principal Risks Facing the Charity The trustees have reviewed the principal risks facing UKTBC and are satisfied that appropriate steps are being taken to manage them responsibly and proportionately. As a volunteer-led and event-focused charity, the following are considered the key areas of risk: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Dependence on Volunteer Capacity The charity relies heavily on the continued availability and commitment of volunteers for programme delivery, event management, and teaching. Loss of volunteer support could impact the charity's ability to deliver its objectives.</li> <li>2. Financial Sustainability While the charity maintains modest reserves, it operates on a low-cost model and is reliant on community donations and participant contributions. Unexpected costs or a</li> </ol>

		shortfall in donations could affect future programme planning. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3. Event Delivery and Compliance Events involving fire rituals, food preparation, and large gatherings carry inherent risks, including health and safety, fire regulations, and insurance coverage. Mitigating steps (e.g. risk assessments, venue compliance, trained volunteers) are actively followed.</li> <li>4. Technology Dependence Online programmes (e.g. Vedic classes) depend on stable digital platforms. Any disruption to online services or technical support could temporarily affect educational delivery.</li> <li>5. Reputational Risk As a culturally and religiously active organisation, UKTBC must maintain high standards of accuracy, inclusivity, and accountability in public communications and programme conduct.</li> </ol> The trustees regularly monitor and review these risks and will introduce formal policies and risk management measures as the charity grows.
Other		Financial Summary for the Period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Donations and Legacies: £5,116</li> <li>- Income from Charitable Activities: £5,360</li> <li>- Total Expenditure: £6,646</li> <li>- Closing Reserves: £3,830</li> </ul>

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:		UK Telugu Brahmin Community (UKTBC) is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales. The charity is governed by a Constitution adopted upon registration, which sets out its structure, rules, and charitable objects. The principal charitable objects of the CIO, as stated in the governing document, are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. To promote the advancement of Hindu religion and culture, with particular reference to the Telugu Brahmin community;</li> <li>2. To provide Brahmin priests to support Hindu communities with rituals and ceremonies;</li> <li>3. To offer Vedic education that supports Hindu religious activities;</li> <li>4. To promote and advance education in the Telugu and Sanskrit languages and associated literature.</li> </ol>
----------------------------------	--	---

		These objects are carried out through activities such as religious festivals, Vedic and language education, cultural publications, and community outreach programmes.
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	Constitution (Charitable Incorporated Organisation) Adopted on 03 November 2023
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	CIO (Charitable Incorporated Organisation)
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	Trustee Selection Methods In accordance with the charity's Constitution (CIO model), trustees are elected by the charity's members at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) or at a special general meeting convened for that purpose. All trustee appointments follow the procedures set out in the governing document. Trustees are elected for a specified term and may be eligible for re-election in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution. The charity does not have any external body or individual with the authority to appoint trustees independently. New trustees are selected based on their alignment with the charity's values and objectives, and are expected to contribute relevant skills and experience to support the governance and delivery of the charity's activities. consider additional training to strengthen governance capacity as the charity grows.

The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	UK Telugu Brahmin Community (UKTBC) is governed by a board of elected trustees who are responsible for the strategic direction, compliance, and overall management of the charity. The trustees meet regularly to review programmes, finances, risk, and governance matters. The charity operates a volunteer-led model, with no paid staff. Key areas such as Vedic education, event management, language instruction, publication (VipraVaani), and community coordination are managed by dedicated volunteer teams under the oversight of the trustees. UKTBC also engages with the wider Hindu and Telugu-speaking community in the UK. Where appropriate, the charity collaborates informally with local temple committees, cultural organisations, and community groups (e.g. Dharmasankalpam group in Hounslow, local families in Rugby) to co-host events or share resources in line with its charitable objectives. This decentralised, collaborative structure allows UKTBC to maintain flexibility, maximise volunteer contributions, and deliver culturally rooted programmes efficiently across the UK.
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	UKTBC works closely with individuals, community groups, and other charities whose activities align with its charitable objectives. These collaborations are informal and based on shared cultural, religious, or educational goals, such as co-organising dharmic events, supporting Vedic programmes, or promoting Telugu language and heritage. There are no related party transactions or financial arrangements with trustees, their close relatives, or organisations in which they have a controlling interest. All such relationships are managed transparently, and trustees ensure that any potential conflicts of interest are declared and appropriately handled in accordance with the charity's governance procedures.
