Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The charity exists to act as a resource for young people up to the age of 18 by providing advice, support and structured programmes of physical, educational and other activities. Its aims include: (a) advancing young people in life by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate fully in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals; (b) advancing education; and (c) providing recreational and leisure-time activities, delivered in the interests of social welfare, and designed to improve the conditions of life for young people.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the reporting period, the charity delivered a range of programmes specifically aimed at improving the lives of young people aged 18 and under. These included physical activity sessions, mentoring schemes, life skills workshops, and holiday provision. The charity's activities were designed to promote personal development, improve physical and mental wellbeing, and offer positive alternatives to exclusion and disengagement. The services were provided in partnership with schools, local authorities and community groups, and focused on those most at risk of disadvantage. These activities directly reflect the charity's stated objectives and were delivered for the public benefit.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in planning and delivering the charity's aims and activities.

Achievements and Performance

--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the reporting period, the charity successfully delivered its programmes primarily in the North East of England and in North London. This delivery was made possible through funding awarded by the Big Lottery Fund and Sport England. A total of 300 young people directly benefited from our work. All participants were under the age of 18 and identified as being from vulnerable or disadvantaged backgrounds. This included individuals with low or no school attendance, those experiencing mental health challenges, young people from low socio-economic households, and those exhibiting or at risk of anti-social behaviour. Through structured physical activity sessions, life skills workshops, and personalised mentoring, the charity helped improve participants' confidence, resilience, and engagement with positive community activities. Many young people reported improved wellbeing, greater motivation, and a renewed sense of belonging. Feedback from schools, families, and local partners further confirmed the impact of our work in supporting re-engagement with education and reducing risk factors associated with exclusion. In addition to individual development, the charity's programmes contributed to wider societal benefits by promoting inclusion, reducing anti-social behaviour, and helping to build safer, healthier communities.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
