Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Elected by other trustees

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Trustees met formally seven times during this financial period. Each time they were joined by the Managing Editor who is not a Trustee but who manages the operations of the charity on a day-to-day basis and, in particular organising and editing Truth magazine.

The primary risks to the charity are reputational and financial. Reputational risk, in particular relating to the content of Truth Magazine and associated social media posts are managed in two ways: firstly, Trustees have a frequent dialogue with the Managing Editor about forthcoming content of the magazine to assess if any topics, for example around anxiety, relationships or addiction would need to be carefully managed; secondly, the Trustees maintain a checklist of items which is consulted during the process of developing an issue of the magazine.

Financial risk is managed by the Trustees only commissioning a new issue of the magazine (the main item of cost to the charity) once sufficient funding is available, by not having any employees or premises at the current time and by conservative financial forecasting.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian faith in the UK and overseas for the public benefit by the production and distribution of printed and digital media and by holding talks and other events of an evangelistic nature to enlighten others about the Christian religion.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity published Issue 9 of Truth magazine in July 2024. This was promoted at the Focus and Orchard Women Christian events during the year as well as through Instagram and personal contacts. 100 copies of the magazine were given to vulnerable women in the West Midlands. The charity also began developing content for Issue 10 of Truth magazine.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

This was the first year of operation for the charity, having taken over the publication of Truth magazine from Rebel Hearts Rebel Girls Ltd. In addition to the publication of Issue 9, its promotion at prominent events and the development of Issue 10, the charity secured funding from two charitable trusts and developed its strategy to include vulnerable women in the target audience.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not have a formal policy on reserves. Instead, it manages financial risks as outlined above. In the future, the charity would develop a reserves policy should it have employees or other significant liabilities.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of funds were donations, notably from two charitable trusts (totalling £7,000) as well as from private individuals.

The charity spent £1,170 on direct costs relating to the production of Truth magazine (48% of total expenditure), and £700 (29% of expenditure) on promoting the magazine at events.
