Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The charity's purpose is to promote spiritual growth, provide support to individuals and families in need, and advance education and community development in accordance with Christian values.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	During the year, the charity organised weekly worship services, community outreach projects, food donations, and educational seminars aimed at supporting vulnerable individuals. Regular youth and family support programmes were also conducted to promote community wellbeing and spiritual development.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when planning and carrying out the charity's activities.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the year, the charity continued to make a meaningful difference in the lives of its beneficiaries through a range of faith-based, educational, and community support initiatives. Weekly worship services, prayer meetings, and counselling sessions provided spiritual encouragement and emotional support to individuals and families facing personal challenges. Our community outreach projects including food distribution, youth mentoring, and educational workshops reached over 15 people, helping to relieve hardship and promote wellbeing. Through collaboration with local partners, we provided care and guidance to vulnerable members of the community, promoting inclusion and reducing isolation. These activities have contributed to improved community cohesion, strengthened family values, and fostered hope and resilience among beneficiaries. The trustees believe that the charity's work continues to bring both spiritual and social benefit to the wider society.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the financial period, the charity remained in a stable financial position. Income was primarily generated through voluntary donations, tithes, offerings, and fundraising activities. Expenditure was directed towards community outreach programmes, worship services, and operational costs. Despite the economic challenges faced during the year, the trustees are satisfied that the charity has managed its finances responsibly and continues to operate within its means.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity's policy is to maintain reserves at a level that ensures continuity of activities and provides a safeguard against unexpected financial difficulties. Reserves are held to support future projects, cover running costs during periods of low income, and allow the charity to respond to emergency needs in the community.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£3,401
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	N/A
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	There were no funds in material deficit during the reporting period.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	The trustees have reviewed the financial position and are confident that the charity remains a going concern. The charity expects to continue receiving sufficient income from donations and other sources to maintain its activities in the coming year.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	The charity is governed by a written constitution (trust deed) adopted by the founding members. This document outlines the charity's purpose, governance structure, powers, and procedures for conducting meetings and managing finances.
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	The charity operates as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) and is registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales. It is a faith-based, not-for-profit organisation established to promote Christian worship, community outreach, and educational development in accordance with its charitable objectives.
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	Trustees are appointed according to the provisions set out in the constitution. New trustees may be elected by the existing board or nominated by members of the congregation at the Annual General Meeting. All trustees are required to demonstrate commitment to the charity's aims, possess relevant skills or experience, and act in compliance with the Charity Commission's guidance on trustee responsibilities. Trustees normally serve a renewable term of three years, subject to re-election or re-appointment by the board.
