Trustees' Report

From 9 January to 31 December 2024

The Trustees present their report and accounts for EduWell Charity for the year ended 31 December 2024.

The accounts have been prepared by the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the charity's constitution, the Charities Act 2011, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts by the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

Structure, Governance and Management

EduWell Charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), dedicated to the advancement of education. Having served the community for over seven years, the charity operates under its "Education Divisions" framework, underpinned by an integrated administrative body.

The day-to-day management and execution of projects are overseen by a dedicated executive unit associated with the Selly Oak Arabic School (SOAS), which draws upon active membership within the Birmingham community. This compact yet dynamic SOAS team implements transformative projects through effective administration, skilled coordination, and a commitment to robust methodologies.

Trustees are appointed by the charity's constitution. New trustees are inducted into the workings of the charity, including their legal obligations, the content of the governing document, and recent financial performance.

Objectives and Activities

The primary objective of EduWell Charity is to advance education for the public benefit. We believe that education and well-being are fundamental rights for every child and every woman. Our work aims to enhance creativity and productivity, raise awareness of mental health, and increase opportunities for individuals to live with dignity.

The charity undertakes numerous successful projects, both seasonal and ongoing, made possible through the unwavering support of generous philanthropists from our vibrant UK Birmingham community.

Achievements and Performance: A Review of Activities

The Trustees are delighted to report on a year of significant activity and community engagement, reflecting our commitment to providing enriching educational and cultural experiences. The following highlights key events and initiatives undertaken during the period:

- Nurturing Young Minds: First Grade Agricultural Workshop (7th February 2024)
Our younger learners in the first grade participated in a wonderfully hands-on agricultural workshop. Guided by the creative instruction, this activity provided a practical and engaging introduction to the natural world and the origins of food, fostering curiosity and environmental awareness.
- Enhancing Digital Literacy: Cybersecurity Workshop (10th February 2024)
An exceptionally well-received session on cybersecurity was delivered, focusing on equipping individuals with practical knowledge to protect their devices, such as smartphones and laptops. We were privileged to have this workshop led by a knowledgeable parent, highly experienced in the cybersecurity field, who provided valuable insights into safeguarding personal information and navigating online threats effectively. This initiative empowered our community with vital skills for online safety.

➤ Celebrating the Spirit of Ramadan (March 2024)

- Engaging Workshops: A dedicated Ramadan workshop was held on 15th March 2024, where the involvement and interaction of parents with their children in creating symbolic activities were deeply appreciated. These shared moments of creativity have undoubtedly forged lasting, positive memories.
- Parental Appreciation: Feedback following these preparatory activities was particularly heartening.
- AI for Young Learners: On 24th March 2024, innovative Artificial Intelligence workshops were conducted – one for younger children with parental participation, and another tailored for older students, introducing them to this transformative technology.

➤ Eid al-Fitr: A Joyous Community Celebration (13th April 2024)

Selly Oak Arabic School hosted a vibrant Eid al-Fitr celebration, open to all and free of admission. Families and friends gathered for an afternoon filled with delicious food, fun games, creative face painting, a much-enjoyed bouncy castle, and immersive virtual reality experiences, making for a uniquely memorable and communal celebration.

➤ Eid al-Adha: A Time of Reflection and Fellowship (19th June 2024)

The significant occasion of Eid al-Adha was observed within our community, providing a valuable opportunity for reflection, fellowship, and the strengthening of communal bonds.

➤ A Tapestry of Cultures: Community Cultural Day (15th December 2024)

Our community came together for a truly splendid Cultural Day, a vibrant showcase of the rich diversity within Birmingham. Participants adorned themselves in a wonderful array of traditional attire from myriad cultures and shared an impressive selection of delicious international dishes, generously contributed by our families. The day was further enriched by engaging video presentations, thoughtfully prepared by some of our talented children, offering insights into various traditions. The celebration, which included national anthems and the proud display of national flags, fostered a wonderful spirit of interaction, joy, and mutual understanding. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all who contributed, not only through their culinary generosity but also for their unwavering support and encouragement. These activities, driven by the dedication of our staff, volunteers, and the active participation of our community, exemplify EduWell Charity's commitment to its objectives.

Public Benefit Statement

As Trustees, we can confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities. Our activities, as described above, provide clear public benefits through educational advancement, cultural enrichment, and community cohesion.

Risk Management

We have to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error. The Trustees regularly review the major strategic, business, and operational risks which the charity faces and confirm that systems have been established to mitigate these risks.

Trustees' Responsibilities:

We are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable it to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the applicable Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations, and the provisions of the Trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the charity and financial information included on the charity's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.
