Objectives and activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To relieve the needs of women, in particular but not exclusively women held in prisons in England who have experienced physical, sexual or mental abuse, or those who have otherwise suffered trauma or who are at risk, through the provision of support, education and practical advice. For the public benefit to advance education (including social and physical training) in particular but not exclusively for women held in prisons in England in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by providing their education (including the study of music or other arts) to prepare for entry to any occupation, trade or profession on leaving the establishment, and by developing their mental, physical and moral capabilities through leisure time activities.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity's employees and consultants attend prisons (in particular women's prisons), institutions and half-way houses to provide therapy sessions as defined by professionals. The sessions include arts, music, and discussion groups. The target audiences are particularly women who have been acknowledged by the professionals as having suffered trauma which has led to behavioural issues.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	Confirmed

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

	SORP reference
Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	No grants are made by the charity

Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	The charity provides programmes of support for traumatised women (and sometimes men) to assist them into society, to the benefit of the beneficiaries and of all of society.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	So far, only the Trustees are volunteers
Other

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Since Vital Beats was approved as a charity in January 2024, it has worked with some 600 people. It also launched a training program for new facilitators and re-established performance groups. Funded by ACE, NHS and other partners, Vital Beats is established as a key stake holder in social prescription modelling for women in the Criminal Justice System (CJS). Through therapy sessions, alongside sessions run by professionals, the beneficiaries are assisted in moving on from their past traumas and finding their place in society. This is believed to reduce re-offending rates.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	The charity has met its main objectives for the provision of services and for growth.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	The charity has been very successful in achieving grants and negotiating contracts for its charitable purposes, with the result that it is growing and so offering such services to additional groups.

Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	Not applicable
Other

Financial review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity spends its grant income on the provision of services for its beneficiaries. The costs matched the income for the period.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity has a policy of holding reserves of 10% of its annual income, to provide a degree of security against any potential temporary issues in the flow of income. However, in its first year it has not yet enjoyed a surplus and so does not yet have reserves.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Nil
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	The charity spends all of its income on providing charitable services and has not yet created surpluses to hold reserves. Fundraising efforts are increasing to improve this situation.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	Not applicable
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	The charity's income and expenditure are balanced, so the Trustees do not anticipate a going-concern issue.

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Charity") for the period ended 31 March 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Charity, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
