Structure, Governance and Management

Governing document

Sadaqah Aid Foundation is governed by its constitution, under which the trustees are responsible for the overall management and strategic direction of the charity.

Trustee appointment and induction

Trustees are appointed in accordance with the charity's governing document. New trustees receive an induction covering their legal responsibilities, the charity's objectives, and its ongoing activities.

Risk management

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed and are satisfied that systems and procedures are in place to mitigate these risks. Given the charity's small scale of operations during the period, risks were limited and kept under regular review by the trustees.

Objectives and Activities

Charitable objectives

The charitable objectives of Sadaqah Aid Foundation are to relieve poverty and hardship and to provide humanitarian assistance to those in need in Bangladesh.

Activities during the period

During the financial period 2024–2025, the charity focused on establishing its operational foundations, including governance arrangements and initial fundraising. No charitable expenditure was incurred during the period.

Achievements and Performance

The charity generated initial income during the period but did not undertake programme delivery or incur expenditure. The trustees consider this period to be a foundational phase, enabling future charitable activities.

Financial Review

Income and expenditure

Total income for the financial period amounted to £1,592. No expenditure was incurred during the period.

Reserves policy

The trustees have not yet established a formal reserves policy. Given the charity's early stage of development, all funds are currently held to support future charitable activities.

Plans for future periods

In the next financial period, the trustees plan to commence charitable activities in line with the charity's objectives and to deploy funds raised towards programme delivery.

Public Benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty under section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance when reviewing the charity's aims and activities.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (UK GAAP), including the Charities SORP (FRS 102).

The trustees are required to: - Keep proper accounting records - Prepare accounts which show a true and fair view of the charity's financial position - Safeguard the assets of the charity and take reasonable steps to prevent fraud and other irregularities
