Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

- (1) To promote social inclusion for the public benefit by preventing people from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those people who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society.

For the purpose of this clause 'socially excluded' means being excluded from society, or parts of society, as a result of one or more of the following factors: unemployment; financial hardship; youth or old age; ill health (physical or mental); substance abuse or dependency including alcohol and drugs; discrimination on the grounds of sex, race, disability, ethnic origin, religion, belief, creed, sexual orientation or gender reassignment; educational or skills attainment; being a care leaver or care experienced; relationship and family breakdown; homeless or poorly housed (that is housing that does not meet basic habitable standards); crime (either as a victim of crime or as an offender rehabilitating into society).

(2) To act as a resource for young people and disadvantaged adults, in Wales, by providing advice and assistance and organising programmes of physical, psychological and educational support and other activities as a means of:

- (a) advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, ethical, mature and responsible individuals;
- (b) advancing education;
- (c) relieving unemployment;
- (d) Relieving the mental and physical sickness of persons resident in Wales suffering from emotional distress or adverse mental health conditions by the provision of counselling and support for such persons;
- (e) providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons.
- (f) Co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities operating in furtherance of the objects or of similar charitable purposes and to exchange information and advice with them.

(3) The promotion of equality and diversity for the public benefit by:

- (a) the elimination of discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, disability, sexual orientation, gender reassignment or religion;
- (b) advancing education and raising awareness in equality and diversity;
- (c) promoting activities to foster understanding between people from diverse backgrounds;
- (d) conducting or commissioning research on equality and diversity issues and publishing the results to the public;
- (e) cultivating a sentiment in favour of equality and diversity.

During this reporting period the charity had, as yet, not undertaken any activities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

N/A

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The reporting period covers the first year for the charity. However, during this period the charity had not yet become active.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We will regularly review our reserves policy and the level of reserves held. Throughout the year, we monitor reserves to identify any significant variances from our target level and understand the underlying causes. Where reserves fall below or exceed our target, we will assess whether this reflects a temporary circumstance or an ongoing trend, and take appropriate action accordingly.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

During this period the charity had neither income nor expenditure.
