Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity continues to maintain and supply content of the app.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them, consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP;
- Make judgement and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the Association will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for financial safeguarding. Trustees have control over the charity bank account and it is only used for the purpose of the charity.
