1. Trustees' Annual Report

Reference and Administrative Details

Charity name: ALIGNED FUTURES CHARITY

Registered charity number: 1207315

Legal structure: Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)

Registered office: 18 Pooles Park, Finsbury Park, London N4 3PF

Trustees during the reporting period: Daniela Emechebe, Maria Balogun, Amardeep Panesar

Objectives and Public Benefit

The charity was established to advance youth mentorship, career exploration, empowerment and related charitable support activities. Trustees have considered the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit.

Activities During the Year

For the reporting period 1 April 2025 to 31 March 2026, the charity remained dormant and did not undertake operational charitable activities. No programmes, grants, fundraising, events, or service delivery took place during the year.

Financial Review

The charity had no financial activity during the reporting period. There was no income, no donations, no grants, no transfers, no expenditure, and no liabilities. A bank account existed, but the balance as at 31 March 2026 was £0.00.

Reserves Policy

As the charity had no operational activity and no funds, there were no reserves held at year end.

Plans for Future Periods

During the reporting period, the trustees did not develop active operational plans for future charitable activities. Due to unforeseen circumstances, the charity remains inactive at present. Trustees will review the charity's position in future periods and assess whether activities can be resumed in line with the charity's objectives and available capacity.

Trustee Responsibilities

Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and accounts in accordance with applicable charity law and accounting requirements.
