The church holds its regular services every Saturday from 6:30 PM to 9:00 PM, providing a time of fellowship, encouragement, and teaching of God's Word. As a Christian evangelical church, its main activity is to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ, promote spiritual growth, and offer pastoral care to members and visitors.

In addition to weekly services, the church specifically meets twice a week, visits people in need, and conducts various discipleship programs and community activities, with the goal of strengthening faith and unity among members.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

In 2024, the church experienced significant spiritual and organizational growth. We welcomed people of various nationalities, many of whom accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. During the year, 13 baptisms were performed and preparations began for a wedding.

In addition, we inaugurated a Leadership Training School, with the aim of improving service to the community and preparing for the expansion of new projects planned for 2026, and established ministries focused on children and teenagers. New equipment was also acquired to provide better integration between members and their families, strengthening relationships and the sense of community.

There was also a change of location and leadership, with operational restructuring that defined those responsible for different sectors of the church.

Demonstrating its commitment to solidarity, the church continued to offer financial and material assistance to people and families in need, both in the United Kingdom and in Brazil.

These actions reflect our mission to serve God and the community with love, faith, and compassion.
