Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian religion for the benefit of the public in its local areas by broadcasting Christian messages of an evangelistic and teaching nature, holding free bible classes, prayer meetings, lectures, celebrating Easter and Christmas and other Christian festival.

To promote social inclusion for the public benefit by preventing people from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those people who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees agree on the development of, and strategic planning that aims to achieve the AMI-HOR UK's year one charitable purposes as follows:

- A) Bring together and strengthen the objects to meet the commissioning challenges and seek opportunities for collaborative working.
- B) Strengthen staff training and development.
- C) Focus on raising awareness and promoting the AMI-HOR UK organisation through various websites, local groups, and communities,
- D) Focus on delivering effective service.

The Undertaken Activities:

1. A few trainings with the Charity Commission, including Safeguarding your Faith Charity: Charity Commission Expectations webinar – May 2024.
2. June Event - Redbridge Volunteering Fair 2024 @ Redbridge Townhall.
3. August Event - In line with the studies that shows that 1 in 6 adults living in England experienced symptoms of anxiety or depression met the criteria for a common mental health disorder (Annual Public Health Report for Redbridge, 2023/24), we organised an outdoor event held in a public park, titled 'Well-Being Service Awareness Day'. The activity features talk on: Mental Health. Positive Parenting. Family Reunion. Behavioural Issues. Outdoor Prayer for the UK and everyone.
4. Easter Eve Worship - April 2024
- 5. Training with the Community Action Redbridge - Good Practice in Volunteer Management – November 2024

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The training activities supported our developing skills and equipped us for effective implementation of the charity objects.

Attending Redbridge Volunteering Fair advertised our organisation and promotes the organisation's objectives in Redbridge as over 200 residents attended the event, and almost all attendees visited our stall on the day, showing interest on our objects.

The outdoor event activity laid foundational talk on, Mental Health Positive Parenting, Family Reunion and Behavioural Issues in homes. It created awareness on the impact of positive parenting on mental health and family well-being.

The Easter Eve Worship focused on seminar and prayer for the Children and Young People.
