Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Members of the Senior Egham Band

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

It should be noted that for the reporting period, the charity has been in its infancy and being established with a transition from an Unincorporated Association Brass Band to a charity. The registered charity has no members currently and has not transferred any assets from the previous organisation.

The next period will see the acceptance of both voting and non-voting members into the charity and the transfer of assets from the unincorporated association into the charity.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

For the public benefit to advance, improve, develop and maintain public education in, and appreciation of, the art and science of brass band music in all its aspects by any means the trustees see fit, including by providing public workshops, public concerts and teaching brass music in local schools and through learner bands.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Although the registered charity has no members, bank account or assets transferred, the organisation has continued to undertake activities in line with the objects.
 The organisation has supported local events such as Remembrance Service, St Georges Day, VE Celebration, Magna Carta Day.
 Supported a local church with fund raising concerts
 Youth project bringing music into the local schools
 Youth and Training bands to teach, encourage and develop young people in brass instruments
 Community Band offering music making to local people of all ages
 Supporting local recitals
 Band Hall property used for local events and regular sports clubs

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
