Structure, Governance, and Management

Flowing Rivers Foundation is established under a CIO Foundation Model Constitution. The charity is governed by a board of trustees who are responsible for ensuring that the charity operates in accordance with its governing document and the Charities Act 2011.

The trustees during the reporting period were: - Oloruntobi Ogundamola Marian Fadimilehin, Segun Olushola Sholademi and James Oladipo

Trustees are recruited in accordance with the Foundation Constitution and are responsible for the strategic oversight of the charity, safeguarding assets, and ensuring public benefit.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable objectives of Flowing Rivers Foundation are to advance the Christian faith, relieve poverty, promote education and support social welfare both in the United Kingdom and internationally. The charity will pursue these objectives through activities such as religious teaching and pastoral care, community support including foodbanks and care for vulnerable populations, programs for children and young people and international initiatives such as child sponsorship and supporting the operation of a children's home in Kenya.

During the reporting period, the charity was financially dormant, receiving no donations or other income and incurring no expenditure. However, the trustees and volunteers undertook limited non-financial activities in furtherance of the charity's objectives, including organisational development, planning, and preparatory work to support future charitable operations.

Non-financial activities during the period included: - approximately 600 clients served via the food bank with non-perishable food items and self-care goods donated and distributed by charity volunteers - 12 visits to Thameside Prison to facilitate Christian religious services - 6 visits to a local residential home to provide support and companionship - 1 community festive event organised to promote social cohesion and community engagement

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and confirm that the activities undertaken were for the public benefit in accordance with the charity's objects.

Achievements and Performance

As the charity was financially dormant, there were no measurable financial outcomes.

Non-financial achievements include: - Development of strategic plans for upcoming charitable activities - Establishment of internal governance and operational procedures - Engagement of volunteers to support the charity's preparatory work - Delivery of community services as listed above, benefiting clients, residents, and local communities

These steps position the charity for future operational activities and fundraising efforts.

Financial Review

The charity's accounts are prepared on an accruals basis. During the reporting period: - Total income: £0.00 - Total expenditure: £0.00 - Net movement in funds: £0.00

The charity held no assets or liabilities at the end of the period and has no restricted funds.

Plans for Future Periods

The trustees intend to: - Advance active charitable programs in line with the charity's objectives - Seek funding and donations to support planned activities - Recruit additional volunteers and enhance governance and operational frameworks

Risk Management

The trustees maintain a risk register and have reviewed risks relevant to the charity, including operational, reputational, and compliance risks. Given the dormant financial status during the reporting period, risk exposure was minimal.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have complied with their duty to have regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and that the report provides an accurate summary of the charity's activities during the period.
