Para 1.20	In it's first year the charity has been working hard to establish itself in the local community and to Local Authorities to raise the profile of what the charity offers. This has included a wide range of fundraising activities including local bingo night, jumble sales, raffles and sponsored walks. The charity has also taken part in Christmas and summer fayres in order to raise the profile of the charity and to demonstrate its aims. We have successfully made contact with two of our local authorities and been able to donate suitcases for young people when they need to move from home to home. We have also ben able to raise the profile if the issue of supporting young people in care and the challenges they face to our local community and managed to garner support through sharing this information.
