Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are, for the public benefit:

(a) to advance the Christian faith; and

(b) to relieve those in need by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship, or other disadvantage;

in each case, in such ways as the charity trustees, in their discretion, consider appropriate.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The CIO carries out activities for the public benefit that further its charitable objects by advancing the Christian faith and relieving those in need. This includes the provision of Christian teaching, encouragement, and support, and the delivery of practical assistance to individuals who are disadvantaged by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship, or other disadvantage.

The trustees ensure that the charity's activities are accessible to the public or a sufficient section of the public and are conducted in a way that provides clear public benefit. In planning and carrying out these activities, the trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the year, the charity focused on establishing its structure and activities in line with its charitable objects. Key achievements included the successful establishment and registration of the CIO, the appointment of trustees, and the development of policies and procedures to ensure effective governance and compliance with Charity Commission requirements.

The charity commenced activities to advance the Christian faith and to provide support to individuals in need. These early activities laid the foundation for the charity's future work and enabled the trustees to assess needs, develop relationships, and plan for sustainable growth.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees aim to maintain reserves at a level sufficient to meet the charity's ongoing commitments and to provide a modest level of financial stability. As the charity is in its early stages of operation, the trustees keep the level of reserves under regular review and will develop a more detailed reserves policy as the charity's activities and financial commitments grow.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

[The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]]. Delete [] if not applicable.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
