Objects and activities of the charity

The purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document:

The objectives of the charity are to advance the Christian faith in accordance with the teachings and traditions of the Eritrean Orthodox Tewahdo Church, primarily for the benefit of the public in Greater Manchester.

In furtherance of these aims, the charity seeks to promote prayer, worship, and spiritual development, and to provide practical support to those in need. This includes supporting children, homeless adults, and vulnerable individuals by encouraging kindness, compassion, and moral values, and by helping to meet basic needs where possible.

The charity is committed to promoting community cohesion, relieving hardship, and supporting the wellbeing of individuals and families through faith-based activities and charitable assistance.
