Financial review

The charity did not undertake any financial transactions during the year, as it was in its establishment phase and had not yet begun its charitable activities.

Reserve Policy

The Qur'an Charity's reserve policy ensures financial stability and the ability to respond quickly to essential requirements and emergencies. The trustees have established that a minimum of six to nine months' operational costs should be held in reserves. This will cover:

- Unforeseen Financial Challenges: Ensuring the charity can continue operating even during periods of reduced donations or unexpected financial difficulties.
- Emergency Response: Ensuring that sufficient funds are available to respond to crises or disasters without delaying aid delivery.
- Long-Term Commitments: Ensuring funds are available to meet ongoing commitments in education, healthcare, and sustainable development projects.

The reserve policy is reviewed annually by the trustees to ensure it aligns with the charity's growth and operational needs

Review of Other Activities and Achievements in 2025

In 2025, The Qur'an Charity's has not experienced any significant changes as there was no operating activities through out the year.

Areas of Work, Impact, and Future Direction

As part of its future direction, The Qur'an Charity's plans to expand its areas of operation globally in 2026. The new trustees have identified potential outreach and program expansion globally.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 JULY 2025

The charity will continue to strengthen partnerships with national & international agencies and governments, introduce vocational training for skills development, and explore impactful delivery under the UN sustainable development goals.

Risk Management

The Qur'an Charity recognises the importance of identifying and managing risks to ensure the continued success of its operations. Key risks identified include:

- Financial Risks: Regular monitoring and auditing of funds ensure they are used effectively and prudently. Reserve policies are in place to mitigate unexpected financial challenges.
- Operational Risks: We develop contingency plans for regions affected by conflict or disasters, ensuring aid delivery continues as efficiently as possible.
- Reputational Risks: We prioritise transparency, communication, and ethical behaviour to maintain the trust of our donors and stakeholders.
- Legal and Compliance Risks: We remain up to date with all regulatory requirements, ensuring compliance with the Charity Commission's guidance and legal obligations.

The trustees have assessed all the major risks mentioned above to which the trust is exposed, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE QUR'AN CHARITY

I report to the trustees on my examination of the financial statements of The Qur'an Charity for the year ended 31 July 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 and the Charitable Incorporated Organisations (General) Regulations 2012.

I report in respect of my examination of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation's (CIO's) financial statements carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. In carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent Examiner's Statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) has prepared its financial statements in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has since been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the financial statements to provide a true and fair view in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1 accounting records were not kept in respect of the trust as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
- 2 the financial statements do not accord with those records; or
- 3 the financial statements do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I don't have any concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.
