(e.g., appointed by, elected by)

1. There must be at least 3 trustees. Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.
2. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The prevention or relief of poverty and assistance of people who are the victims of war, natural disaster, trouble, or catastrophe anywhere in the world by such charitable means as the trustees may determine including, but not exclusively, by providing grants, items and services to individuals in need or to other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty or assist such victims.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the period, the charity has worked toward the prevention or relief of poverty and the support of individuals affected by war, natural disasters, or other crises, as set out in its governing document. This has been achieved through the provision of charitable support, including grants, services, and goods, either directly to individuals or through partner organisations working in affected areas.

The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit when planning and delivering these activities, ensuring that all efforts serve charitable purposes and are made available to those in genuine need.
