We all manage the foundation and we do not recruit new trustees, this is a very small foundation that really doesn't require much management as our sole purpose is to help people/ hospitals on educating the signs of Sepsis.

Our objectives for the year are very simple, we have recently written a children's book that we will be giving out to all local hospitals and also to schools that Alfie was part of, this is a children's book that will educate everyone on the signs of Sepsis. We will also be holding stalls in locals towns and villages to hand out leaflets etc.
We do aim to do talks in schools etc also.

We do not have any debts , we have already filed the accounts, none of the trustees hold any funds regarding the foundation, this is all in the foundation account and only ever used for the foundation purposes.
