Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To advance the Islamic faith in accordance with the Shi'a school of Islam in Suffolk for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, and public celebrations of religious festivals, in order to enlighten others about the Islamic faith.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity organised regular prayer gatherings and facilitated the observance of significant religious occasions for its community. It also hosted visiting scholars who delivered educational lectures on a range of Islamic subjects, thereby supporting the spiritual development and religious understanding of attendees.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that, in carrying out their duties during the year, they have had due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the reporting period, the charity organised regular and occasional prayer gatherings and marked key religious occasions for the benefit of community members. These activities provided spiritual support, fostered a sense of belonging, and strengthened social cohesion within the community. However, the scope and frequency of these activities were necessarily limited by the absence of a dedicated place of worship, which constrained the charity's ability to reach a wider group of beneficiaries and expand its services.
