

Dear Trustees,

I am writing to confirm that, as the charity's bank account has not yet been opened, any financial items referenced to date should be treated as void for reporting purposes. No transactions have been processed, and no financial activity is currently attributable to the charity.

This letter serves as formal confirmation for your records until the account is established and operational.

Yours sincerely, Olivier Kouao