- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

No governance issues to be reported.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

THE ADVANCEMENT OF THE CHRISTIAN FAITH FOR THE PUBLIC BENEFIT IN PARTICULAR BUT NOT EXCLUSIVELY BY: CARRYING OUT MISSIONARY ACTIVITIES IN THE UNITED KINGDOM AND OVERSEAS; PLANTING NEW CHURCHES AND ORGANISING CONGREGATIONS; PROVIDING EDUCATION, EMOTIONAL & PSYCHOLOGICAL SUPPORT AND ACCOMMODATION TO CHRISTIAN FRONTLINE LEADERS AND THEIR CHILDREN WHO ARE SUFFERING FROM CRISIS OR TRAUMA; PROVIDING EDUCATION BY THE CONDUCT OF A TRAINING CENTRE FOR THE STUDY AND

TEACHING OF THE BIBLE, CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE, PSYCHOEDUCATION AND RELATED SUBJECTS.	Sound Global Collective (SGC) will provide the following: - Beneficiaries will receive training and education to enable them to understand the impact of trauma (both primary and secondary), and further training when appropriate to enable them to facilitate an organisational culture of recovery for both the leadership and their staff. - Beneficiaries will be offered prayer, listening and ongoing prayer support. - Beneficiaries will be offered a community network of people who have similar and shared experience as people of faith leading in a variety of contexts, from Christian ministry through to charity leaders. - Sound Global Collective will facilitate conferences and retreats which leaders, organisations and charities will be able to pay for their leaders to attend. Where leaders, organisations and charities are not able to cover the costs, SGC will fund the retreats for those who have been recognised as in need. - Where poverty has been identified in beneficiaries, Sound Global Collective would work to provide relief to the leaders of independent churches and charities by providing one off grants to cover the costs of essential building repair works, utility replacements, transport costings or select holidays where children have been impacted by the work of their parents. In the case of supporting holiday costs, Sound Global Collective will administer and record specific requirements that the retreats/holidays must meet, and parents/guardians must feedback on the success of the holiday on their family to evidence the impact of the support.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

This period of time has been formative for Sound Global Collective as the charity plans to be in a position to welcome Pastors and Pioneering Leaders to it's first retreat in January 2026.

Whilst these months have been formative from a governance and planning perspective, there is nothing to report in the way of achievements for the charity in this period.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not currently hold any finances but will seek to establish a reserve of £5,000 once fully operational.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not applicable.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
