Governance and management

The charity is operated under the rules of its constitution/trust deed adopted 31st August 2024

New trustees are appointed through board meeting based on discussion of the expertise of the individual knowledge and skills in the Buddhist community.

Objectives and activities

Advancing the Buddhist religion for the benefit of the public throughout England and Wales in accordance with the statement of faith through any charitable means as the trustees may from time to time decide, which may include, but are not restricted to, the following: a) the teaching, study or practice of the principles of the Buddhist faith. b) the provision of a learning centre or other place for Buddhism education. c) producing and/or distributing literature to promote the principle of the Buddhist religion. d) maintaining close communication with and working in co-operation with other groups with same or similar objectives and/or to promote religious, racial and cultural harmony by enhancing mutual understanding among all races and cultures.

Public benefit statement

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit, 'Charities and Public Benefit'.

Amitabha Buddhist Sangha Organisation

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit

The aim of our objectives is to provide a space for group communal practices to give the public a place to practice Buddhism. We also support other Buddhist organisations throughout the country to work together on mutual objectives in providing support to advance Buddhism to the community.

Summary of the main achievements during the period

Throughout the year we have hosted numerous communal practices Dharma services allowing the public to participate in Buddhist chanting. We have also had the visit from and to other Buddhist communities to help support and participation of each other's events to help promote Buddhist teaching to the wider group of community.

We also benefited other charity organisations in the area by donating food bank collections donated by volunteers and members of the public at the temple.

During the year we have also re-furbished the kitchen at the operating address to provide better facilities for volunteers. The work was completed by our volunteers which help reduce the cost of outsourcing the work to a contractor.

Financial review

We are pleased to see that the financial position is in a surplus position which helps with the future growth of our organisation.

The charity's policy on reserves

We have a threshold for bank balance to not be below £10,000.

Financial risk

The charity organisation relies heavily on the donations from members of the public – there is a risk that income for our organisation could decrease as it relies on donors' monetary donations.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Amitabha Buddhist Sangha Organisation
for the year ended 31 March 2025

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Group (the charity) for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

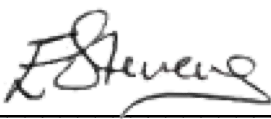

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
