Legal form: Charitable Incorporated Organisation – Foundation Model

1. Reference and administrative details

Pendo International Projects UK is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation established under the Foundation Model constitution.

The charity's constitution was dated 17 September 2024.

The principal office of the CIO is in England.

The charitable objects of the CIO are:

“For the public benefit, to advance the education of young people in Kenya by making grants and providing advice and information.”

The word “Pendo” is Swahili and translates as “love”.

Trustees

The trustees serving during the year were:

- Emily Bruce-Watt – first charity trustee, five-year term
- Jackline Muiruri – first charity trustee, four-year term
- Alexander Walters – first charity trustee, three-year term

The constitution provides for a minimum of three and a maximum of five charity trustees.

2. Structure, governance and management

The charity trustees are responsible for the management and administration of the CIO and are also its voting members.

Trustees exercise their powers in accordance with the constitution and applicable charity law.

The constitution permits decisions to be made at meetings, including virtual or hybrid meetings, or by written or electronic resolution in accordance with its provisions.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining appropriate accounting records and preparing the annual report and accounts.

3. Objectives and activities

The charity's purpose is to advance the education of young people in Kenya by making grants and providing advice and information.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the charity did not receive any income and incurred no expenditure.

No grants were made and no charitable funds were distributed during the year.

The trustees subsequently reviewed the charity's position and concluded that the charity would not continue its operations and should proceed towards voluntary dissolution.

4. Achievements and performance

The charity did not undertake funded charitable activities during the year.

No grants were made and no expenditure was incurred.

The trustees concluded that, in the circumstances, it was appropriate to bring the charity's activities to an end and proceed with voluntary dissolution following completion of its statutory reporting obligations.

Other trustee benefits: £0

The trustees are required to comply with the constitution's provisions concerning conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty.

10. Future plans and proposed dissolution

Following consideration of the charity's circumstances and future prospects, the trustees have concluded that Pendo International Projects UK will not continue its activities beyond completion of its statutory reporting and filing obligations for the year ended 31 December 2025. The trustees intend to proceed with the voluntary dissolution of the CIO in accordance with clause 29 of the constitution and the applicable Charity Commission requirements.

The trustees confirm that the charity had no income, expenditure, funds, assets or liabilities at 31 December 2025.

The trustees will complete the required annual reporting and then take the necessary steps to apply for the CIO to be removed from the Register of Charities.

11. Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records and for safeguarding the assets of the CIO.

12. Approval

This Trustees' Annual Report was approved by the Board of Trustees and authorised for issue.
