Reference and Administrative Details

Name of the Charity: Praying Mother Of Nations

Charity Number: 1210187

Trustees Serving During the Year:

- Ms Fola Jamani
- Mrs Odun Igho
- Ms Blessing Omors

Structure, Governance, and Management

Praying Mother Of Nations is governed by its Trustees, who are responsible for the overall management, governance, and strategic direction of the charity. The Trustees meet as required to review activities, make decisions, and ensure that the charity operates in accordance with its governing document and complies with UK charity law.

Objectives and Public Benefit

The purposes of Praying Mother Of Nations are to advance the Christian faith and to promote the welfare and wellbeing of women and young people within the community.

In setting objectives and planning activities, the Trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The activities undertaken during the year were designed to provide spiritual support, personal development, and leadership opportunities. These activities contributed positively to individual wellbeing and community cohesion and were considered by the Trustees to deliver clear public benefit.

Activities and Achievements

Women's Prayer Conference

During the year, the charity held one women's prayer conference. The conference focused on prayer, worship, encouragement, and fellowship and was open to women within the community. Its aim was to support spiritual growth and emotional wellbeing. The Trustees consider that this activity furthered the charity's aims and provided tangible public benefit.

Leadership Training

Leadership training sessions were delivered to women and young people. These sessions were designed to equip participants with Christian leadership principles, build confidence, and develop practical skills for service within the community. The Trustees believe these activities helped to empower participants and strengthen future leadership capacity.

Retreat – October 2024

In October 2024, the charity organised a retreat for members, providing opportunities for rest, reflection, meditation, prayer, and worship. The retreat supported spiritual renewal and mental wellbeing.

Participants initially contributed £30 each towards transport costs. Subsequently, some members volunteered the use of their personal vehicles. As a result, the Trustees agreed that all transport contributions should be refunded in full. This decision was made in line with the charity's commitment to transparency, fairness, and proper stewardship of funds.

Financial Review

Praying Mother Of Nations operated on a small-scale basis during the period under review. Income and expenditure were modest and were carefully monitored by the Trustees to ensure sound financial management and stewardship.

Total income for the period amounted to £1,951.00. Total expenditure was £1,925.05, resulting in a surplus of £25.95, which will be carried forward to support the charity's future activities.

Expenditure is analysed as follows:

- £1,117.14 was spent directly on charitable activities, including the delivery of prayer conferences, leadership training, and the retreat. These costs supported the charity's objectives of advancing the Christian faith and promoting the welfare and wellbeing of women and young people.
- £597.91 was incurred on essential operational and administrative costs, including digital services, promotional flyers, and website-related expenses. These costs supported the effective delivery, administration, and communication of the charity's activities.
- £210.00 related to retreat transport contributions initially paid by participants. Following the Trustees' decision to use volunteers' personal vehicles, this amount was fully refunded. No surplus was generated from these transport contributions.

All funds received during the period were applied solely towards the charity's charitable purposes.

The Trustees confirm that proper accounting records have been maintained and that the charity's funds have been used only to further its charitable objectives.

Risk Management

The Trustees have considered the main risks facing the charity, including financial sustainability and volunteer capacity. Appropriate steps are taken to manage these risks, including careful financial oversight and encouraging wider volunteer participation.

Plans for Future Periods

Following a review of the year's activities, the Trustees and other leaders agreed to build upon what has already been established. Future plans include:

- Continuing prayer conferences and leadership training
- Expanding activities that support the welfare and wellbeing of women and young people
- Encouraging more volunteers to join and support the charity's work

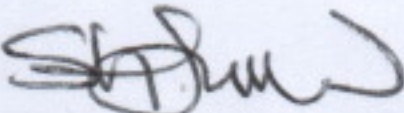

The Trustees believe that increased volunteer engagement will strengthen the charity's capacity and long-term sustainability.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and ensuring that it complies with applicable UK charity law and reporting requirements. They are also responsible for safeguarding the charity's assets and ensuring that these are used solely for charitable purposes.
