Review of activities

The church held weekly services in Crawley and midweek online prayer meetings via Zoom. Other activities included outreach, education, health support, and community engagement.

Public benefit statement

The church provides worship, pastoral care, and online access to services. Trustees confirm that activities meet the public benefit requirement under the Charities Act 2011.

Financial review

Receipts totalled £12,134.57, comprising £1,237.00 in donations and a personal loan of £10,897.57. All funds were used for charitable purposes.

At year-end, the charity held no cash reserves. Assets total £4,459.79 (net book value), and liabilities total £11,297.57 resulting in a net liability position of £6,837.78.

Reserves Policy

The charity aims to maintain reserves equivalent to three to six months of expenditure. This policy is reviewed annually.

Risk management

Trustees monitor financial, safeguarding, health and safety, and operational risks. Appropriate systems are in place to manage these areas. Financial risks – such as fluctuations in income or unexpected expenditure, managed through regular monitoring of budgets and maintaining adequate reserves.

Independent Examiner's Report

To the Trustees of Kings of Kings End Times Revival Ministries Int'l

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2025, which are set out on page 6

Responsibilities and basis of report

Trustees are responsible for preparing accounts under the Charities Act 2011. I conducted my examination under section 145 of the Act and followed Charity Commission.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, nothing has come to my attention:

- That accounting records were not properly kept
- That the accounts do not match those records

I have no other concerns to report and no matters to report for a proper understanding of the accounts.

Signed: Mr. Abdulai Gbla
