Constitution, objects and policies
The Charitable Trust is constituted by Trust Deed, and its main objectives are to 1 – Prevention and Relief of poverty
2 – Advancement of education
3 – Helping the needy and poor including orphans and widows
4 – Aiding with medical treatment

The area which we govern and are most active is India and England. Providing health care facilities and food aid for the poor and destitute. Assist in providing education and training with an emphasis on helping the orphans and widows in their daily living costs.

Development, activities and achievements

As a newly established charity, for the year ended 31st December 2025 we have not conducted any activities. Donations received in this period will be used on projects and activities in the next accounting period.

Visits
The trustees aim to visit recipients or charities we will be supporting. Contact has been established through telephone, email and photographs were given to the charity to assess projects requiring assistance.

Staffing Structure
Momin Foundation is run wholly on a voluntarily basis.

Financial review
Funds available are sufficient to permit the charity to continue in operation in the medium to long term, together with the continued support from the donors.

Future Development
The charity aims to support projects in India and also look to support local projects in England. In countries where an urgent need arises the charity will try to provide assistance for food, education, medical and education advancement.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities
Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare the financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

(a) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
(b) Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
(c) State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
(d) Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approval
This report was approved by the trustees on 22th August 2025 and signed on their behalf.
