The Ponders End Evangelical Trust

Trustees' Annual Report and Accounts

For the year ended 31 December 2025

1. Reference and administrative details

Charity name: The Ponders End Evangelical Trust

Charity Commission registration number: 1213818

Principal office: 1 Church Road, Ponders End, Enfield, EN3 4NT

Governing document: Constitution of a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO).

Trustees serving during the reporting period / at approval: Richard Alldritt, Jeff Hammer, Frances Chapman, Neena Hall.

2. Structure, governance and management

The Ponders End Evangelical Trust is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) governed by its constitution. Under the constitution, the charity trustees manage the affairs of the CIO. The first trustees named in the constitution are Richard Alldritt, Frances Chapman, Neena Hall and Jeff Hammer.

3. Objects, activities and public benefit

The charity's objects are to advance the Christian religion for the public benefit in the London Borough of Enfield, including (but not limited to) through the provision of grants of financial assistance to support St Matthew's Ponders End in the whole mission of the Church.

The charity was established during 2025. The reporting year was principally a start-up period while administrative arrangements, including opening a bank account, were being put in place. No charitable activities were carried out during the year and no grants or other charitable expenditure were made.

The trustees recognise the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and will have regard to it when planning and carrying out the charity's activities. As no charitable activities took place in 2025, the charity did not deliver direct charitable outputs during this reporting period.

4. Achievements and plans for the future

No operational or charitable achievements are reported for 2025 because the charity was in its initial set-up phase. The trustees' next steps are to complete the charity's banking and administrative arrangements, and then consider and implement activities consistent with the charity's objects and available resources.

5. Financial review

There was no financial activity during the year ended 31 December 2025. The charity received no income, made no payments, and held no cash or bank balance at the year end. No funds were available for charitable application during the period.

6. Approval

This report was approved by the trustees and signed on their behalf by an authorised trustee.
