Fund Policies

Investments in stocks and shares are held in an unrestricted capital fund. Realised gains are kept within this fund to reinvest.

Dividends and interest from investments are held in an unrestricted distribution fund. This fund is for the purpose of fulfilling the charitable activities of The Tracey Almshouse Trust.

The Capital fund meets 60% of the trust administration expenses, all other receipts and payments are within the Distribution Fund.

Reserves Policy

The charity holds reserves on the Distribution Fund to cover expected distributions and overheads. Excess funds are held within the Capital Fund where they are invested to produce income and capital gains.

Objectives and Activities

The objects are:

- 1) For the benefit of the residents in the Almshouses of the charity or any of them in such manner as the Trustees think fit from time to time. The residents shall be poor persons who are elderly or infirm and of the protestant religion who were born in or who have lived within the area of benefit for not less than ten years
- 2) For relief in need in relieving either generally or individually persons resident within the area of benefit who are in conditions of need, hardship or distress by making grants of money or providing or paying for items, services or facilities calculated to reduce the need, hardship or distress of such persons
- 3) For such charitable purposes within the area of benefit as the Trustees think fit.

The Trustees maintain the fabric of the Almshouse buildings, finance the repair & service of equipment, such as the boiler etc and pay the resident's regular outgoings, such as gas & electricity charges. Surplus income is applied in the provision of grants towards charitable causes within the area of benefit, such as church repairs and the improvement of local schools' facilities. The Trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

- 1) The maintaining of the Almshouse buildings to be in a good state of repair.
- 2) The support of diverse charitable causes within the area of benefit.

Independent Examiner's Report to The Trustees of The Tracey Almshouse Trust

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on pages 5 and 6.

Responsibilities and Basis of Report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent Examiner's Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
