1. Structure, governance and management

Governing document

Victory Hall Trust is constituted as a charitable trust registered with the Charity Commission in July 1963 under charity number 220940. It is governed by an indenture from December 1919, updated by resolution in March 2011.

Organisational structure

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits.

The trustees meet as a body quarterly and are responsible for all decisions taken in relation to running the Victory Hall.

Individual trustees are given responsibility for finance, maintenance and bookings.

Recruitment and appointment of trustees

The existing trustees are responsible for the recruitment of new trustees, elections take place at the charity's AGM. Trustees are appointed for a 3 year term.

Training of trustees

Following appointment, new trustees are introduced to their new role and given access to the trust document library and introduced to the policies and procedures adopted by the charity.

2. Objectives

As a trust our aim is to carry out the object defined in our conveyance which is to enable the "village hall, recreation room and ground to be used and enjoyed in perpetuity by the inhabitants for the time being of the said hamlet of Farley Hill". As a consequence of our actions a sense of community that did not exist before continues to flourish within the village, with all that use the hall, proud of a revitalised building.

3 Activities and achievements

How our activities deliver public benefit

More than half of the residents of Farley Hill have attended an event at the Victory Hall with regular users including Farley Hill Village Society continuing to thrive in the updated facilities we as Trustees have provided and manage. In this year, we have completed the renovation of our washrooms in order to not only update in line with the needs of our current users but the needs of all ability user groups. An automated booking system to complement a new web site has gone live, with the intention of alleviating volunteer fatigue. Further improvements were made to the outside space including resurfacing and addition of permanent outdoor furniture.

Community activities

The hall and meeting rooms however are available for use by local groups and organisations. A wide variety of activities are organised and take place including Sewing Club, U3A groups, art exhibitions, toddler play groups and community social evenings.

The hall continues to be used as a polling station for elections which has enabled the local school to remain open. When facilities are not required for community use they are available for hire on commercial terms. This year alone our facilities have been used on over 200 occasions with many groups organisations and individual benefiting from the improved facilities we now offer the local community.

5 Financial review

Reserves policy

The trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity. The policy, reviewed this year, is to hold enough funds to meet our annual obligatory costs including fuel and insurances.

Principal funding sources

The charity's main source of income during this financial year has been through hiring the hall to regular users such as Farley Hill Village Society alongside casual one-off users.

Plans for future periods

The next project to be undertaken in order to improve facilities will be to complete the resurfacing the carpark and other paved areas alongside provision of permanent outdoor furniture to benefit all users.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing an annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;

Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees for the purposes of charity law who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.
