ROBERT TOWRIE CHARITY CONSTITUTION

WITHIN THE PARISHES OF ALDBROUGH AND BURTON CONSTABLE, EAST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE

Purpose of the Robert Towrie Charity:

To support the residents of the parishes of Aldbrough and Burton Constable in the East Riding of Yorkshire. Support is given to support elderly, university students, school pupils and Aldbrough Primary School.

The rent gathered from the Towery Farm land, Towery Farm and 32 and 34 Church Street, Aldbrough, in the East Riding of Yorkshire, owned by the Robert Towrie Charity and interest from the money invested by the Trust shall be used to support residents of Aldbrough and Burton Constable parishes and to maintain and repair the properties the Trust owns.

Recipients of support will be subject to the following criteria:

1. The recipients of support must have been living in either parish for a period of not less than TWO YEARS continuously.
2. Support can be given in the form of the charity paying for services, items or facilities calculated by the Trustees of the Robert Towrie Charity to benefit residents of the above parishes or pupils attending Aldbrough Primary School. Support for hospital visiting, home care provision, food provision or fuel purchases could be some of the ways residents could be supported.
3. Recipients of direct support from the charity must not be Trustees of the Robert Towrie Charity.

Trustees

The Trustees shall comprise of eight competent members being:

One member of the Aldbrough Parish Council

One member or delegate of Burton Constable Parish Council

One delegate from Aldbrough Primary School

Five other co-opted Trustees of whom at least one must be a resident of Burton Constable or West Newton Parish and at least two should have agricultural experience

East Trustee shall be appointed for a term of four years and must sign the minute book of the Robert Towrie Trust as a declaration of acceptance and willingness to act in the interests of the Trust. If a Trustee wishes to resign their Trusteeship, a signed letter of resignation must be received by the Trust's clerk, to be read out at the next appropriate meeting. When a vacancy occurs, the Trust may appoint a suitable and competent person at their convenience, usually at the Annual General Meeting. Any Trustee may be re-appointed by the Trust at the end of their four year appointment and the chairman may also be re-appointed at the end of the year of office.

Privacy statement

Any information you give us will be held securely and processed only in accordance with the rule on data protection. We will not disclose your personal details to anyone unconnected to the Charity Commission unless:

- you have consented to their release; or
- we are legally obliged to disclose them; or
- we regard disclosure as either (a) necessary so that we can properly carry out our statutory functions or (b) necessary in the public interest.

We may share and disclose information about you with relevant public authorities, regulatory bodies and agencies, outside the Charity Commission but only if:

- we can lawfully do so; and
- we decide that disclosure is necessary for national security, crime detection, prevention, and law enforcement, or other issues in the public interest

Information we collect about you

We will use this information:

To enable us to carry out our statutory functions and duties;

This will include the following actions:

- (a) update, consolidate, and improve the accuracy of our records;
- (b) undertake crime detection and prevention and law enforcement and assist the third parties specified above to investigate or prevent crime and carry out law enforcement;
- (c) data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes

Information we receive from other sources.

Information we receive from other sources

We may combine this information with information you give to us and information we collect about you.

We may use this information and the combined information for the purposes set out above (depending on the types of information we receive).

We will ensure that any such disclosure and use is proportionate; considers your right to respect for your private life; and is done fairly and lawfully in accordance with the data protection principles of the Data Protection Act.

The Data Protection Act 1998 regulates the use of 'personal data', which is essentially any information, however stored, about identifiable living individuals.

As a 'data controller' under the Act, the Charity Commission must comply with it. Any changes we may make to our privacy statement in the future will be set out in the replacement version of this form.
