The Charity is governed by a Scheme of the Charity Commission dated 8th July 1971. It is constituted as a trust; apart from the Rector, who is ex-officio, 8 trustees are appointed by the parish councils of Bedale, Aiskew with Leeming and Crakehall and 16 are elected.

The objects of the charity are: To relieve either generally or individually persons resident in the area of the parishes of Aiskew and Leeming Bar, Bedale, Burrill with Cowling, Crakehall, Firby, Langthorne and Rand Grange who are in conditions of need, hardship or distress by making grants of money or providing or paying for items, services or facilities calculated to reduce the need, hardship or distress of such persons.

During the year the charity made grants of £7652.73 to meet those objects. A small part of one of the fields was sold as garden for a considerable uplift on its agricultural value; another part of the same field was let for 9 months as a compound for an adjacent building site for a significant uplift on its agricultural rent.

Work continued on preparing to transfer the assets to the Bedale Welfare Charity CIO 1206644 and the charity will merge with the CIO in 2025.

The Annual Accounts are attached and form part of this report.
