Objects

As stated in the constitution, the charity's objects include supporting local Women's Institutes in the pursuit of:-

- Arts and crafts
- Sport and leisure activities
- Education
- Campaigning and championing social issues.

The charity provides a link between the national body (Federation for Wales) to the community based local institutes, ensuring the flow of information in both directions and promoting best practice.

Reserves policy and risk management

Future activities of the charity are to be funded by future income and liquid assets currently held. The Federation is not bound by any financial commitments for which funds do not exist.

The trustees have reviewed the major risks to which the charity is exposed and they are satisfied that the charity's established systems mitigate those risks.

Trustees responsibilities

Charity law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of its financial activities for that period and adequately distinguish any material special trust or other special fund of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to:

- a. Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
- b. Make judgements that are reasonable and prudent
- c. State whether the policies adopted are in accordance with the guidance issued by the Charity Commission and the accounting regulations and applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- d. Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charity will continue in business.
- e. The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with applicable accounting standards and the regulations made under section 130 of the Charities Act 2011 as well as the charity's governing document.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities.

Achievements and Performance

Chairman's Message:

2020 was supposed to be a very special year in our history, the year of the Federation's Centenary. Unfortunately, the year was dominated by the impact of the Covid -19 pandemic rather than the celebrations and activities we planned.

Our plans were significantly curtailed, with very limited activity by the charity during the year. As restrictions lift and the vaccine rolls out, we hope more members will be able to adapt to a new way of interacting via virtual online events etc.

Thank you for all your support during this last year. I hope you will continue to enjoy the various events and activities we have planned for you for the coming year, with, we hope, something to suit everyone's taste, and look forward to your continued support throughout the coming year.

With my best wishes to you.

Margaret Lloyd Jones

Chairman

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Gwynedd-Caernarfon Federation of Women's Institutes

I report on the accounts of Gwynedd-Caernarfon Federation of Women's Institutes for the period ended 31 December 2020 which are set out on pages 9-12.

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this period under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act;
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act and
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and the seeking of explanations from you as the committee concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts and no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view'. My report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - To keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act and
 - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
