Charity for providing guides over the Kent and Leven Sands

Trustees' report For the year to 28th February 2022

The trustees present their report and the accounts for the year to 28th February 2022.

Structure, governance and management

The charity, which is an unincorporated association, was founded by schemes of 6th November 1877, 19th February 1946 as varied by scheme of 25th October 1961 and registered with the Charity Commission on 6th July 1964. A new trustee is appointed when required following the agreement of the existing trustees.

Objectives and activities

The objectives of the charity are to provide guides for access across the Kent and Leven estuaries on Morecambe Bay. The activities of the charity are for the public benefit in that they provide assistance with crossing the estuaries safely.

Achievements and performance

During the year the guides once again helped many people cross the estuaries safely.

Financial review

The receipts for the year were £67,801 (2021 - £19,021) and the payments were £14,679 (2021 - £7,272) which resulted in a net excess of receipts over payments of £53,122 (2021 - £11,749 surplus).

The surplus for the year was added to the funds brought forward of £202,309 to give a balance at the year end of £255,431.

The trustees aim to keep sufficient reserves to enable them to maintain the property owned by the charity and meet the expenses of running the charity.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Charity for providing guides over the Kent and Leven Sands

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 28th February 2022 which are set out on pages 2 to 6.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- (1) accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
(2) the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
