Activities

Objects: The charity's objects ('the objects') are: (a) The advancement of education by promoting the study of the history of Unitarian and kindred movements in the United Kingdom and elsewhere; (b) The preservation, for the public benefit, of registers, architectural and other records, manuscripts, plate, pictures and antiquities relating to the congregations connected therewith; (c) The publication of historical documents and the "Transactions" of the Society. Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the charity for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and/or section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Activities: Produces annually a set of learned articles known as 'The Transactions Of The Unitarian Historical Society'. The transactions are widely distributed to historians, libraries and universities. The society meets every year for its annual general meeting and lecture. Members pay a subscription and attend the AGM. They receive a copy of the transactions in return for their subscriptions.
