Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Charity is governed by its Trust Deed dated 23 September 1966. The structure of the Charity is by way of the Trustees who are detailed above and the day to day running is carried out by the Administrator of the fund.

Retirement and Appointment of Trustees

The appointment of the Trustees is governed by the trust Deed of the Charity. The Board of Trustees is authorized to appoint new Trustees to fill vacancies arising through resignation or death of an existing Trustee. The Trustees remain in office until they resign or until death intervenes.

Trustees Induction and Training

New Trustees are usually familiar with the objects of the Charity, but are invited to fully acquaint themselves with the detailed work of the Trust and the context within which it operates by discussion with the existing Trustees. This covers the Trust Deed; The resources and current position as set out in the latest published accounts; and future plans and objectives.

Risk Management

The Trustees actively review the major risk which the Charity faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining reserves at current levels, combined with an annual review of the controls of the key financial systems, will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions. The Trustees have also examined other operational and business risks faced by the Charity and confirm they have established systems to mitigate the significant risks.

Organisational Structure

The day to day running of the Trust is in the hands of the Administrator. The Trustees evaluate half yearly reports from their Investment Advisors and meet with them as necessary, and review the investment portfolio. The Investment Advisors do not have a discretionary mandate with regard to the dealing of investments but are required to follow broad instructions with regard to funds not deemed appropriate to the Trusts' objectives.

Objectives and Activities

The aims and objects of the Trust are solely for relief and maintenance of superannuated, sick or disabled secular clergy ordained for or affiliated to the Diocese of Nottingham.

Nottingham Clergy Association or Johnson Fund Report of the Trustees for the year ended 30 September 2024

Achievements and Performance

The Trustees keep their policy for donations and grants constantly under review and deal as they feel appropriate with all requests for support and help.

During the year the Trust made 60 donations/grants totalling £20844.49 (Year 2023, £24386.25) ranging from £25.80 to £1400.00.

Financial Review

The policy of the Charity continues to maximise its income from current investments and make grants and donations in accordance with its objectives. The Charity shows a small increase in funds prior to the unrealized profit on revaluation of investment assets. The net increase in overall funds after providing for this unrealised loss was £39782. Overheads and spending are minimal.

Principal Funding Sources

The trust does not actually fund-raise, relying on the income generated from its investments, which is supplemented by donations from persons having an affinity with the Roman Catholic Diocese of Nottingham.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the Charity to maintain unrestricted funds at a level which equates to in excess of twelve months unrestricted expenditure. The provides sufficient funds to cover management and administration costs together with its support expenditure and currently stand at considerably in excess of this requirement.

Investment Policy

In accordance with the trust Deed the property of the Charity is administered and managed in the name of the Trustees who are authorized to make and hold investments using general funds of the Charity.

Capital Commitments

There were no capital commitments at 30 September 2024.

Plans for Future Years

It is not anticipated that there will be any major changes in the activities of the fund in the foreseeable future, and the donations/grants made by the trust will be commensurate with the reserves available.

Nottingham Clergy Association or Johnson Fund Report of the Trustees for the year ended 30 September 2024

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required under the Charities Act 1993 to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the Charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year (unless the Charity is entitled to prepare accounts on the alternative receipts and payments basis). In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the Trustees should follow best practice and:

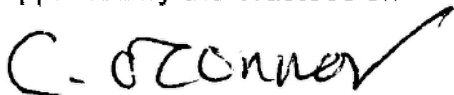

- a) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently.
- b) Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- c) Follow applicable accounting standards and Charities SORP disclosing and explaining any departures in the accounts.

and

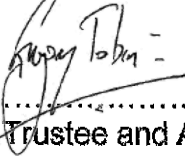

- d) Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which are such as to disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Charity at any time and to enable them as Trustees to ensure that the accounts comply with Charity Law. The Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the Charity's assets and ensuring their proper application in accordance with Charity Law and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of error, fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report on the Accounts of Nottingham Clergy Association or Johnson Fund

We have examined the financial statements of the above Trust for the year ended 30 September 2024 on the following pages which have been prepared under the historical cost convention as modified by revaluation of fixed investment assets and the accounting policies set out on page 9

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiners

The Charities Trustees consider that an audit under S43(2) of The Charity's Act 1993 (the Act) and that an Independent examination is required

It is our responsibility to; Examine the accounts (under Section 43 of the Act) ;

To follow the procedures laid down by the General directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 43 (7) (b) of The Act)

And

To state whether any particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures shown in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the Trustees concerning and such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express any audit opinion on the accounts.

NOTES AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES FOR THE YEAR ENDED
30 SEPTEMBER 2024

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified as the revaluation of fixed investment assets and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008) and the Statement of Recommended Practice : Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in March 2005.

1.2 Fund Accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the Charity. Unrestricted funds include unrealised gains on revaluation of fixed asset investments.

1.3 Incoming Resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the Charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- Voluntary income is received by way of grant, donations and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable. Grants, where entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the Charity, are recognised when the Charity is unconditionally entitled to the grant.
- Investment income is included when receivable.

1.4 Resources Expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability incurred.

- Costs of generating funds comprise the costs associated with attracting voluntary income.- Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the Charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them. Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the Charity and include the examiner's fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the Charity. All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SOFA on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly.

1.5 Tangible Fixed Assets for Use By the Charity

Investment assets are stated at valuation values.

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 30 September 2021

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Charity is governed by its Trust Deed dated 23 September 1966. The structure of the Charity is by way of the Trustees who are detailed above and the day to day running is carried out by the Administrator of the fund.

Retirement and Appointment of Trustees

The appointment of the Trustees is governed by the trust Deed of the Charity. The Board of Trustees is authorized to appoint new Trustees to fill vacancies arising through resignation or death of an existing Trustee. The Trustees remain in office until they resign or until death intervenes.

Trustees Induction and Training

New Trustees are usually familiar with the objects of the Charity, but are invited to fully acquaint themselves with the detailed work of the Trust and the context within which it operates by discussion with the existing Trustees. This covers the Trust Deed; The resources and current position as set out in the latest published accounts; and future plans and objectives.

Risk Management

The Trustees actively review the major risk which the Charity faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining reserves at current levels, combined with an annual review of the controls of the key financial systems, will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions. The Trustees have also examined other operational and business risks faced by the Charity and confirm they have established systems to mitigate the significant risks.

Organisational Structure

The day to day running of the Trust is in the hands of the Administrator. The Trustees evaluate half yearly reports from their Investment Advisors and meet with them as necessary, and review the investment portfolio. The Investment Advisors do not have a discretionary mandate with regard to the dealing of investments but are required to follow broad instructions with regard to funds not deemed appropriate to the Trusts' objectives.

Objectives and Activities

The aims and objects of the Trust are solely for relief and maintenance of superannuated, sick or disabled secular clergy ordained for or affiliated to the Diocese of Nottingham.

Nottingham Clergy Association or Johnson Fund

Achievements and Performance

The Trustees keep their policy for donations and grants constantly under review and deal as they feel appropriate with all requests for support and help.

During the year the Trust made 48 donations/grants totalling £18678.80 (Year 2020, 28, £8477.22) ranging from £23.80 to £1772.25.

Financial Review

The policy of the Charity continues to maximise its income from current investments and make grants and donations in accordance with its objectives. The Charity produced an increase in funds prior to the unrealized profit on revaluation of investment assets. The net increase in overall funds after providing for this unrealised loss was £3189. Overheads and spending are minimal.

Principal Funding Sources

The trust does not actually fund-raise, relying on the income generated from its investments, which is supplemented by donations from persons having an affinity with the Roman Catholic Diocese of Nottingham.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the Charity to maintain unrestricted funds at a level which equates to in excess of twelve months unrestricted expenditure. The provides sufficient funds to cover management and administration costs together with its support expenditure and currently stand at considerably in excess of this requirement.

Investment Policy

In accordance with the trust Deed the property of the Charity is administered and managed in the name of the Trustees who are authorized to make and hold investments using general funds of the Charity.

Capital Commitments

There were no capital commitments at 30 September 2021 .

Plans for Future Years

It is not anticipated that there will be any major changes in the activities of the fund in the foreseeable future, and the donations/grants made by the trust will be commensurate with the reserves available.

Nottingham Clergy Association or Johnson Fund Report of the Trustees for the year ended 30 September 2021

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required under the Charities Act 1993 to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the Charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year (unless the Charity is entitled to prepare accounts on the alternative receipts and payments basis). In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the Trustees should follow best practice and:

- a) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently.
- b) Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- c) Follow applicable accounting standards and Charities SORP disclosing and explaining any departures in the accounts.

and

- d) Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which are such as to disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Charity at any time and to enable them as Trustees to ensure that the accounts comply with Charity Law. The Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the Charity's assets and ensuring their proper application in accordance with Charity Law and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of error, fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report on the Accounts of Nottingham Clergy Association or Johnson Fund

We have examined the financial statements of the above Trust for the year ended 30 September 2021 on the following pages which have been prepared under the historical cost convention as modified by revaluation of fixed investment assets and the accounting policies set out on page 9

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiners

The Charities Trustees consider that an audit under S43(2) of The Charity's Act 1993 (the Act) and that an Independent examination is required

It is our responsibility to; Examine the accounts (under Section 43 of the Act) ;

To follow the procedures laid down by the General directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 43 (7) (b) of The Act)

And

To state whether any particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures shown in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the Trustees concerning and such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express any audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's statement

In the course of our examination no matter has come to our attention

(1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect, the Trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that,

proper accounting records are kept in accordance with Section 41 of the Act

and

accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act.

or

(2) to which in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NOTTINGHAM CLERGY ASSOCIATION OR JOHNSON FUND NOTES AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2021

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified as the revaluation of fixed investment assets and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008) and the Statement of Recommended Practice : Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in March 2005.

1.2 Fund Accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the Charity. Unrestricted funds include unrealised gains on revaluation of fixed asset investments.

1.3 Incoming Resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the Charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- Voluntary income is received by way of grant, donations and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable. Grants, where entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the Charity, are recognised when the Charity is unconditionally entitled to the grant.
- Investment income is included when receivable.

1.4 Resources Expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability incurred.

- Costs of generating funds comprise the costs associated with attracting voluntary income.- Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the Charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them. Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the Charity and include the examiner's fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the Charity. All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SOFA on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly.

1.5 Tangible Fixed Assets for Use By the Charity

Investment assets are stated at valuation values.

Independent Examiner's Report on the Accounts of Nottingham Clergy Association or Johnson Fund

We have examined the financial statements of the above Trust for the year ended 30 September 2020 on the following pages which have been prepared under the historical cost convention as modified by revaluation of fixed investment assets and the accounting policies set out on page 9.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 43(2) of The Charity's Act 1993 (the Act) as amended by S28 of the Charity's Act 2006
And that an independent examination is required

It is our responsibility to; Examine the accounts (under Section 43 of the Act) ;

To follow the procedures laid down by the General directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 43 (7) (b) of The Act)

And

To state whether any particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's REPORT

Our examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures shown in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the Trustees concerning and such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express any audit opinion on the accounts.
