I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- > the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- > the financial statements do not accord with the accounting records; or
- > the financial statements do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- > the financial statements have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objective of the charity is the relief of residents in need, hardship or distress in the ecclesiastical parish of Stotfold and Fairfield. Grants are made to organisations and individuals to alleviate need, provide services and facilities, including the provision of allotments for the use of the local community.

Applications for grants are invited twice a year and are assessed by the Trustees to ensure that the funds alleviate need, provide services or facilities to benefit individuals or the community in Stotfold and/or Fairfield. The trustees have due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

The Trustees and the Clerk are all volunteers.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

In 2024 grants were made to provide: - local schools blackout curtains for a school hall and for two outdoor stages. Craft activities for adults and children at Stotfold Library. To fund hall costs, refreshments and public liability insurance and publicity for social groups associated with providing a "warm space". Transport costs of delivering food to families for a Need project. Purchase of an electrically powered liquid fertiliser sprayer for the local Bowls Club. Educational grants for University and Further Education students.

Maintenance work was carried out on the allotments to provide a safe and workable environment for the plot holders,

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- > the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act, or
- > the financial statements do not accord with the accounting records; or
- > the financial statements do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- > the financial statements have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
