Report of the Trustees

Objects of the Charity and Principal Activity

The aim of the Charity is

- A. The promotion of Orthodox Jewish religion education through establishment and maintenance of an Institute for Higher Rabbinical Studies.
- B. The advancement of the Orthodox Jewish religion education.
- C. The relief of poverty.

Review

During the year the Charity promoted education of orthodox Jewish law by providing lectures, Hebrew books, Bursaries and Grants for the students of the institute.

Talmud Centre Trust provided essential financial assistance to our members affected by poverty.

The charity was actively engaged in fund-raising activities for the above purposes.
