Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The trust was established to make donations to, or for the benefit of, such charitable purposes, institutions or foundations in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland and in such manner as the trustees see fit.

The Charity makes donations to charitable institutions concerned with public welfare and the advancement of the Christian faith.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Charity made donations totalling £41,500 to twelve charitable institutions supporting Christian communities and organisations. The largest donation (£25,000) was given to St Andrew's Church Oxshott (C of E) in connection with the appeal for renovation of its roof. A further £5,000 was given to The Bible Society, which works to bring The Bible to people across the world who might not otherwise have access, and £4,000 was given to The Church Mission Society.

Section E

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report on my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act, and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145 of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept by the Charity as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. The accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report on my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act, and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145 of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept by the Charity as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. The accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The trustees manage the risks associated with investment holdings by using the investment management services of Smith & Williamson

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The trust was established to make donations to, or for the benefit of, such charitable purposes, institutions or foundations in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland and in such manner as the trustees see fit.

The Charity makes donations to charitable institutions concerned with public welfare and the advancement of the Christian faith.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Charity made donations totalling £60,000 to sixteen charitable institutions supporting Christian communities and organisations. The largest donation (£25,000) was given to Holy Rood House, a charity with a Christian ethos whose objectives are to provide safe spaces and support for those who are finding life difficult and challenging. A further £15,000 was given to The Bible Society, which works to bring The Bible to people across the world who might not otherwise have access.

Section E*Financial review*Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Charity receives donations that are subsequently paid to a range of charitable institutions. Amounts are held until payment is made.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Charity receives investment income, and donations on which Gift Aid is claimed. The Charity's investments are in two separate managed funds.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report on my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act, and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145 of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept by the Charity as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. The accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
