Activities

Objects: The object of the charity is, for the public benefit, to advance health and relieve the needs of patients receiving healthcare in the community in the Saltash area and their carers. In particular, but not exclusively, by:i) partnering with community services in primary care, services in the home or in day care to bring additional support to individual patients and carers and contribute to the creation of new projects to expand healthcare provision;ii) running community events and consultations to inform and educate local people about healthcare generally, and iii) acting as a champion for community healthcare locally.

Activities: Fundraising to support the wellbeing of patients and their carers in the Saltash area, while also serving as a champion for community healthcare locally.
