Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The study and practice of Choral and Orchestral music in order to foster public knowledge and appreciation of such music by means of public performance and education.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In planning our activities for the year we kept in mind the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at our committee meetings. The focus of our activities continues to be the provision of live orchestral and choral performances for attendance by members of the public; and regular rehearsals at which members of the society continue to learn about and practise the music to be performed. The orchestra welcomes new players, although membership may be subject to audition and vacancies. The chorus also welcomes new singers and is open to all keen singers without audition.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The society gave four public concerts during the year in the Windsor and Maidenhead and South Bucks areas. Full details of the concerts are provided in the annual newsletter, which is available on request.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Cash funds are held in current or deposit accounts, all of which are unrestricted funds. The society aims to hold at least sufficient reserves to cover its annual running costs.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Slough Philharmonic Society (Charity No. 269909) on the Accounts for the Year ended 31 May 2023.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Slough Philharmonic Society (the Trust) for the year ended 31 May 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which give me cause to believe that, in any material respect:

- a. accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
- b. the accounts do not accord with the accounting records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
