Governing Document

Islamic Centre Edgware is constituted as a charity and registered with the Charity Commission on 25 February 1976. The constitution was adopted on 31 August 1975 and last amended on 29 June 1997.

Aims and Objectives

The aims and objectives of the charity are:

- The advancement of the religion of Islam in accordance with the tenets and doctrines of Sunni sect of Islam.
- The advancement of the education of Muslim children in accordance with the tenets and doctrines of Sunni sect of Islam.
- The relief of such members of the sect who are poor and needy.
- Arrange prayer facilities for the local Muslim community.

Structure of the Organisation

The charity's trustees are responsible for management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or any other financial benefits. The trustees meet together as a body on a regular basis and are responsible for making decision in relation to running the organisation effectively. The trustees have set up a managing committee for the smooth running of the charity and to maintain its day to day finances.

The existing trustees are responsible for appointment of new trustees but they consider nominations only recommended by the local community leaders as well as by the managing committee. The trustees believe this method is very effective way to build strong relationship between the charity and the local community where the charity operates.

Risk Management

The trustees have assessed the risks the charity faces and review these risks regularly at their meeting and confirm that systems are in place in order to manage these risks and necessary steps can be taken to manage the risks that have been identified.

Financial Review and Investment Policy

The charity has no long-term investment. The charity's cash are held in UK bank deposit accounts. The centre's results are stated on page 4. The centre achieved net incoming resources of £234,163 for the year ended 31 March 2024 and the trustees are pleased with the results.

Trustees Responsibilities to the Financial Statements

The charity's trustees are responsible for preparation of financial statements in accordance with applicable law to charities in England and Wales which gives true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity during the financial year. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policy and the apply them consistently;
- follow the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

ISLAMIC CENTRE EDGWARE
INDEPENDENT EXMINER'S REPORT
TO THE TRUSTEES AND MEMBERS

We report on the financial statements of Islamic Centre Edgware for the year ended 31 March 2024, which set out on pages 5 to 7.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis on Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matters has come to my attention

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Acthave not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
