Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Society's 90th season marked the eleventh and final year under the musical direction of Michael Cayton, and the fourth full season with Pam Allanson as Chair. Across this milestone year, the Society delivered five concerts, while the Watford Phil Voices performed at different events across the year helping promote the wider society. 9th November 2024 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society presented a vibrant programme including Carl Orff's Carmina Burana, Rossini's William Tell Overture and Mendelssohn's Verleih Uns Frieden. As part of Carmina Burana, the Voices sang the Piccolo Coro passages, while the full choir performed the Ragazzi sections. The highlight of the concert was the impressive audience turnout which was one of the largest we have had in Bushey, helping to elevate the performance. Soloists: The soloists were soprano Milly Forrest, tenor Peter Van Hulle and baritone Julian Chou-Lambert.

		14th December 2024 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society's annual Christmas concert featured a festive programme performed by the Choir and Orchestra, with audience participation invited for selected pieces. The programme also included performances from the Watford Phil Voices, adding to a dynamic and enjoyable evening. A particular highlight was the choir's beautifully delivered a capella rendition of In the Stillness by Sally Beamish. The choir and orchestra also performed The

	Angels Song by local composer Jeremy Hogarth who was present in the audience to enjoy the performance. A 'surprise' visit from Father Christmas added a delightful touch of seasonal magic to the evening. Peter Van Hulle returned to perform as a soloist and comper for the evening. 29th March 2025 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: Works Performed: The Society performed Rossini's Stabat Mater, accompanied by performances of Haydn's Te Deum and Beethoven's Symphony No.2 in D. • Soloists: Milly Forrest returned as our soprano soloist for the evening, joined by Mezzo Helen Stanley, Tenor James Botcher and Baritone Peter Willcock. 7th June 2024 at St Luke's Church, Watford: The family-friendly event featured selected movements from Camille Saint-Saens' Carnival of the Animals, interspersed with children's action songs, and introductions to key orchestral instruments. A reduced ensemble was used for the concert including principal strings, xylophone, two wind players, and a piano duet performed by Michael Cayton and Mark Hammond. Breaking up the orchestral performance helped enhance audience engagement, further supported by creative elements such as PowerPoint slides showing animal photos and the use of animal masks.

	14th June 2024 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: Works Performed: For Michael's final concert with the Society, the Society performed a concert version of the Pirates of Penzance • Soloists: We welcomed Gwendolen Burton to perform as Mabel and Russell Painter to perform as Frederic, both performing with the Society for the first time. Baritone, Peter Willcock returned to sing the Major General. Other solo roles were performed by members of our Society including Bill Penketh as The Pirate King, Brian Thomson as the Sergeant of Police, Sarah Lockwood as Ruth, Charlie Hancock and Maria Humble as Samuel, Helen Simon and Ishbel Morren as Kate, and Susie Huxham as Edith. John Mackenzie-Corby performed as the narrator (old Frederic) for the evening's performance. Lynne Medini delivered a signed performance of Pirate's for the evening, demonstrating her diligent dedication by learning every line of the dialogue and libretto.

	The Watford Phil Voices – Throughout the 90th season, the Watford Phil Voices performed at several events, including: a. The Croxley Green Parish Nurses dementia-friendly event (Friday, 8th November 2024) b. Carol singing at Tesco, Watford, raising £230 for Mencap in one hour (Saturday, 21st December 2024) c. A free concert at St Mary's Church (Saturday, 8th March 2025) d. The Society's 90th season celebratory dinner (Thursday, 3rd April 2025) e. The Bushey Performing Arts Festival (Sunday, 8th June 2025) As part of the 2024/2025 season, the Society hosted a successful "Come and Sing" event at St Luke's on Saturday, 17th of May 2025. The day attracted 60 people who tackled Brahms' Requiem. Workshops: Throughout the 2024/2025 season, choir members participated in a series of pre-concert workshops. The workshops have proven invaluable in enhancing the overall quality of the Society's concert performance as well as promoting the musical confidence of all in attendance. Social events: to mark the Society's 90th season, Audrey organised a special 90th Anniversary Celebration Dinner, held at the Blue Check in Bushey. The evening featured a performance by members of the Watford Phil Voices.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Concerts Ticket Sales at Bushey Academy have been very good with full/greater than budgeted capacities for all concerts with the exception of a slightly lesser number for the Spring Choir concert. Audience numbers for the Summer Orchestra concert at St Lukes were a healthy 123. The costs that are required to productive attractive concerts with rich content continue to be rigorously controlled by everyone responsible. Primary challenges are increased musician and soloist fees that need to be honoured and paid in line with recognised market rates for our level of musicianship. The financial year has resulted in a lower than budgeted overall Concert Net Cost of £7,949 (2023/24: £2,782). Compared to the previous Watford Colosseum days, the challenges of balancing the reduced income capacity that the Academy lends compared to the Colosseum against increasing costs continue to be rigorously addressed and reviewed but we are well placed with enthusiasm as we go into the 2025-26 season. There is much work this season, led by Nick Shaw the new Music Director and Friends and members of the WPS Committee in encouraging musicians from the Watford area to join the WPS Orchestra with the purpose of increasing membership with a need to reduce the numbers of musician extras for each of our concerts. Continued thanks go to all those involved in working together in many aspects leading up to concert day, including rehearsals, advertising, ticketing, programme sales, and setting up facilities (including staging) on the day. There were 2 additional costs centres set up during 2024/25. One was for the 'Come and Sing' Brahms Germn Requiem event in the Summer at St Lukes which was a very popular event generating a £247 loss overall. The other was for the WPS Voices who performed a concert at St Mary's Watford in Spring 2025, creating a small profit for WPS funds.
		Rehearsal Costs Total rehearsal costs were over budget by £1,779 (2023/24: £579). Costs at St. Lukes church, Watford were higher than budgeted due to the need for additional sectional rehearsal space throughout the season and a 'Come and Sing' event in the Summer, offset by a £2,400 saving in the use of professional musicians at rehearsals throughout the season . The Orchestra moved to the Friends Meeting House in Church Road, Watford from St. Andrews Church at a similar cost per hour. We look forward to continuing our pleasant working relationships at both St. Lukes and the Friends Meeting House.

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2006 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

Independent examiner's statement

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Society's 89th season was the tenth under the guidance of our conductor Michael Cayton and the third full season under the leadership of Chair Pam Allanson. The Society presented four choral concerts and a separate orchestral concert: 28th October 2023 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society performed two works by Vaughan Williams – Five Mystical Songs and Dona Nobis Pacem – alongside two works by Brahms: Geistliches Lied and the Academic Festival Overture. This was a challenging programme requiring both choir and orchestra to be on top form. The soloists were soprano Emily Rowley-Jones, in fine voice, and baritone Gabriel Gottlieb, making his debut with the Society. The programme was completed by a stunning performance of the Bruch Violin Concerto No.1 given by 17-year old Danielle Lee on her professional debut.

	16th December 2023 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The annual Christmas concert featured the usual festive programme, in front of a capacity audience of almost 300. The soloist was baritone Gabriel Gottlieb, who gallantly stood in as a late replacement. Once again, the wood-panelled Grand Hall provided an intimate and atmospheric setting for the occasion. 23rd March 2024 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society took on the challenge of performing one of the major works of the choral canon, Mendelssohn's Elijah. Singing the part of Elijah, baritone Thom Isherwood made an outstanding debut with the Society and was well supported by fellow debutants Victoria Mulley and Caroline Carragher, along with the returning Matthew Pochin. The concert marked the final performances by two of the Society's most loyal and popular members – Rehearsal Accompanist Rosemary Venner and her husband and tenor/bass stalwart Tim. 1st June 2024 at St Luke's Church, Watford: The Orchestra presented an ambitious programme in front of an enthusiastic audience of over 120, starting with the Shostakovich Festival Overture and finishing with Brahms' Second Symphony. In between, the orchestra was joined by soprano soloist Milly Forrest to sing the Four Last Songs by Strauss. Milly, a great favourite with the Society, combined pathos with power in a moving performance that was much appreciated. 29th June 2024 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: For the Summer concert, the Society invited the audience to A Night on Broadway and the chance to enjoy a programme of popular songs from such shows as The Phantom of the Opera, Carousel, West Side Story and My Fair Lady, plus a selection of songs by Stephen Sondheim. Soprano Helena Raeburn sang some less familiar solos. The Society's new Rehearsal Accompanist Mark Hammond made an accomplished concert debut alongside percussionist James Pickford and bass player Sam Pugh. The Watford Phil Voices – a small auditioned "chamber" group – made their debut at the Bushey Performing Arts Festival on 9th June. Workshops: Members of the choir took part in a series of pre-concert Workshops to enhance their concert performances and increase their musical confidence. Social events: a successful Christmas social evening was held on 18th December.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Concerts Ticket Sales at Bushey Academy have been very good with full/greater than budgeted capacities for all concerts with the exception of a slightly lesser number for the Autumn Choir concert. Audience numbers for the Summer Orchestra concert at St Lukes were a healthy 126. The costs that are required to produce attractive concerts with rich content continue to be rigorously controlled by everyone responsible. Primary challenges are increased musician and soloist fees that need to be honoured and paid in line with recognised market rates for our level of musicianship. The financial year has resulted in a lower than budgeted overall Concert Net Cost of £2,782 (2022/23: £6,986). The average concert saving across the five concerts was £556 better than budget. Compared to the previous Watford Coliseum days, the challenges of balancing the reduced income capacity that the Academy lends compared to the Coliseum against increasing costs continue to be rigorously addressed and reviewed but we are well placed with enthusiasm as we go into the 2024-25 season. Continued thanks go to all those involved in working together in many aspects leading up to concert day, including rehearsals, advertising, ticketing, programme sales, and setting up facilities (including staging) on the day.
		Rehearsal Costs Total rehearsal costs were over budget by £579 (2022/23: £1,466). There has been an overall closer (more favourable) match to the budgeted spend as the choir experience its first full year of rehearsal at St.Lukes Church, Watford after its move from Watford Girls' Grammar School (WGGS) in Spring 2023. Usage rates at the church are more competitive compared to WGGS and we look forward to continuing our pleasant working relationship with the church.

Achievements and Performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Society's 88th season was the ninth under the guidance of our conductor Michael Cayton and the second full season under the leadership of Chair Pam Allanson. The choir's rehearsal venue moved to St Luke's Church, Watford after many years at Watford Girls' Grammar School. The Society presented four choral concerts and a separate orchestral concert: 29th October 2022 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society performed a double bill of Modern Sacred Classics, featuring the Requiems composed by John Rutter and Gabriel Faure, as well as Elgar's Nimrod from the Enigma Variations and a Pavanne by Faure. Two of the Society's favourite soloists, Emily Rowley-Jones and Peter Willcock, were in fine voice for the occasion, which was much enjoyed by performers and a near-capacity

		audience alike. occasion was much enjoyed by performers and a near-capacity audience alike. 10th December 2022 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The annual Christmas concert featured the usual festive programme with a record audience for the venue playing their part to the full. The soloist was soprano Emily Kirby-Ashmore, making her debut as a performer with the Society but familiar to the choir as a replacement rehearsal conductor. As always, the wood-panelled Grand Hall provided an intimate and atmospheric setting for the occasion. 25th March 2023 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society's Spring concert was the surprise hit of the season, featuring Rossini's Petite Messe Solennele, with The Thieving Magpie as an overture. It was one of those rare occasions when everything came together to create a memorable evening of topquality musical entertainment. The choir and orchestra were on sparkling form and there were four outstanding soloists in Galina Averina, Miranda Westcott (both making their debuts with the Society), Peter van Hulle and Geoff Williams 1st July 2023 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society's Summer concert consisted of three works in an unusual combination: Bernstein's challenging Chichester Psalms, Misa Brevis by our own Musical Director Michael Cayton and Howard Goodall's Eternal Light, which proved very popular. The soloists were treble Jasmine Bor, still at school and making her professional debut, and the tried and tested combination of Emily Rowley-Jones and Peter Willcock. Orchestral concert: On 3rd June 2023 at St Luke's Church, Watford the orchestra presented an afternoon concert of popular light music and some chamber ensembles which gave individual players the chance to show off their talents Obituaries: Terry Edwards, President of the Society and Musical Director from 2006-2014, died in September 2022, aged 83. The Autumn performance of John Rutter's Requiem was dedicated to his memory.

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Concerts Ticket Sales at Bushey Academy have been good with full capacities for the first three concerts with slightly lesser numbers for the Summer Choir concert. Audience numbers for the Summer Orchestra concert at St Lukes were less than 100 as anticipated in the Budget. The lesser cost base that the Academy lends, compared to the Colosseum, continues to be rigorously controlled by everyone responsible and has resulted in a lower than budgeted overall
---	-----------	--

		Concert Net Cost of £6,986. The average concert saving was £1,400 better than budget. The challenges of balancing the reduced income capacity that the Academy lends compared to the Colosseum against increasing costs continues to be rigorously addressed and reviewed but we are well placed going into the 2023-24 season. Continued thanks go to all those involved in working together in many aspects leading up to concert day, including rehearsals, advertising, ticketing, programme sales, and setting up facilities (including staging) on the day. Rehearsal Costs Total rehearsal costs were over budget by £1,466 primarily due to higher than budgeted costs for the Choir Summer Concert. Choir rehearsals transferred from the Summer term, going forward, to St Lukes Church after Watford Girls' Grammar School (WGGS) became no longer available due to evening staff shortages. Usage rates at the church are more competitive compared to WGGS and we look forward to a good working relationship with the church.

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 1st July 2021 To 30th June 2022

Charity name: Watford Philharmonic Society

Charity registration number: 272393

Para 1.17 and 1.19	The opportunity to join the Society as a choral singer or orchestral player is open to all, subject to payment of a subscription, which is kept as low as possible. Concerts promoted by the Society are generally performed at the Watford Colosseum and tickets are on sale to the General public.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Society was founded in 1935 and the charity's trustees, who make up the Society's management committee, continue to have regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Society's 87th season was the eighth under the guidance of our conductor Michael Cayton and the first full season under the leadership of Chair Pam Allanson. In September 2021, the Choir was able to meet and rehearse in person for the first time in eighteen months as the Covid-19 pandemic receded at last, though strict precautions prevailed. The temporary closure of the Society's regular concert venue, the Watford Colosseum, meant a new setting for the Society's four concerts: 23rd October 2021 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society's first concert for two years featured Mozart's Requiem and Ave Verum Corpus, while the orchestra contributed a spirited Jupiter Symphony. It was good to welcome returning soloists Emily Rowley-Jones, Helen Stanley and Geoff Williams, while tenor Nick Allen made his much-postponed debut with the Society. The occasion was much enjoyed by performers and a near-capacity

		audience alike. 11th December 2021 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The annual Christmas concert was constrained by face coverings and a bar on audience participation. It was also impossible to include a school choir, as is the Society's custom. Despite these limitations, choir and orchestra were delighted to perform the usual seasonal programme, culminating in the traditional Ring Out, Wild Bells, which took on a particular resonance this year. They were joined by soprano soloist Helena Raeburn, making her debut with the Society after a two-year delay. The wood-panelled Grand Hall, decked with festive embellishments, provided an atmospheric and intimate setting for the occasion. 26th March 2022 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society's Spring concert was a real red-letter day for many members of the Society, who had long aspired to performing Handel's Messiah. The occasion did not disappoint, and was witnessed by a sell-out and very enthusiastic
--	--	--

	audience. The soloists were Rachel Chapman, Kate Fun, Matthew Pochin and Peter Coleman. 25th June 2022 at the Grand Hall, Bushey: The Society's Summer concert, entitled "Midsummer Magic" was something of a departure. The first half featured Songs and Sonnets by George Shearing and John Rutter's Birthday Madrigals, followed by extracts from three popular modern musicals: Les Miserables, South Pacific and Mamma Mia. The orchestra took the night off and accompaniment was provided by the redoubtable Rosemary Venner on piano, plus bass and drums. A more informal staging and dress code contributed to the relaxed atmosphere. The choir was seriously depleted by an outbreak of Covid but managed to rise to the occasion, and a number of members successfully took on the challenge of singing a solo. Orchestral concert: On 18th June 2022 at St Luke's Church the orchestra presented an afternoon concert of popular light music which marked the final performance of flautist Keith Champion after over 50 years with the Society. Obituaries: Graham Garton (1929-2021), Musical Director of the Society from 1967 to 1989. His wife Barbara, a sometime soloist with the Society, predeceased him by a month. Terry Edwards (1939-2022) President of the Society and Musical Director 2006-2014.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Concerts Ticket Sales have been fairly buoyant, and to compliment that costs have been well controlled by everyone responsible. This has resulted in lower than expected overall Net Costs of Concerts. Meeting these challenges head on has left us in a healthy position going into 2022-23, and congratulations are due to all those involved in rehearsals, advertising, preparation, ticketing, programme sales, and of course on the day. Rehearsal Costs Overall Rehearsal costs were within budget with minor variations in each concert. Workshops In a change in presentation this year I have included the choral workshops in the concert costs as they are concert specific and so that they are not lost in Sundry costs. As can be seen Workshops are not breaking even as they have mainly done in the past. Orchestra Workshops are not concert related and they continue to be shown in Sundry as Profit and Loss on Misc Activities.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Reserves are held in order to provide a buffer against increased losses on concerts, and to protect the level of subscriptions required to continue operating
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£50,087
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	-
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	-
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	-

Responsibilities and basis of report I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/06/2022.

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

Independent examiner's statement

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
