Governed by constitution adopted in 1975 and as last amended in January 2005

Report of the Trustees and Committee of Management

The Trustees and Committee of Management present their report and the Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2022

1. Objectives and Activity

The charity was formed and registered in 1975. The latest amendment to the constitution is dated 2 January 2005. The principal objectives are the advancement of the Sikh religion, to impart religious and cultural knowledge and to inculcate the benefits in the local community within the London Borough of Barnet, Brent, Camden, Enfield, Haringey and Islington.

2. Trustees and Administration

Trustees are elected bi-annually and hold office until re-elected. The present trustees are:

Mr H S Gupta
Mr R S Ananad
Mr R S Natt

All the properties and assets belonging to the charity are vested in the Trustees who hold all deeds and documents, titles and securities for safe custody and preservation. The disposal or otherwise of assets and the day to day management of the Charity is in the hands of the Committee of Management. The officers and members are elected annually at the Annual General Meeting. All work done by the Trustees and members of the Committee of Management is voluntary and no remuneration or other payment whatsoever is made to them.

3. Responsibility of Trustees and Committee of Management

The Trustees and Committee of management acknowledge their responsibility for keeping proper accounting records and preparing the accounts there from, and also for the safe keeping of the assets in compliance with the provisions of the Charities Act 1993.

The financial position on the financial activities for the year is as shown in the attached Financial Statements.

The Charity currently owns:

1. 136 High Road, New Southgate – The main Temple and abode for priests
2. 138 High Road, New Southgate – Abode for priests and car park.
3. 134 High Road, New Southgate – Community Hall and Punjabi School

134 High Road, New Southgate is mainly used as a Community Hall. The Tudor Trust made a grant in 1997 of £40,000 towards the refurbishment costs. Other costs have been financed by donations and interest free loans from members of the temple. The loans have since been repaid and the amount transferred to capital reserve.

4. The Charity finances and runs a Punjabi School for the local community and at present has over 100 students at various stages of learning.

5. Reporting Accountants

JSP Accountants Limited, the reporting accountants to the charity have expressed their willingness to continue to act in this capacity.

By Order of the Board of Trustees
And Committee of Management

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES/ MEMBERS ON 31st MARCH 2022

The accounts for the year ended 31st March 2022 are set out on pages 4 to 5.

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7) (b) of the act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention.

- (1) Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
- To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and
 - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act

Have not been met; or

- (2) To which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
