

The Christian Renewal Trust

The Christian Renewal Trust was established by deed dated 19th July 1978 (number 276496) with the following objects:

“The advancement of the Christian religion, the relief of the poor and the relief of the sick and the aged in need”. The principle objects are achieved by the raising of funds by donation, bequest and subscription from within the Fellowship of Churches of Christ in Great Britain and Ireland and its member churches and providing loans, grants and gifts to member churches of the Fellowship or other Christian establishments or organisations in general agreement with the principles of the trust. The said loans, grants or gifts contributing to the public benefit by:

- The provision, upkeep, repair, renovation or enhancement of places of Christian worship, education or community outreach.
- For Christian religious education, training and the raising of awareness and understanding of Christian beliefs and practices.
- Supporting churches for the carrying out of public religious devotional acts such as weddings and funerals.
- The carrying out of community outreach by the support of the poor, sick, infirm and those with disabilities and the needy in the community.
- The carrying out of missionary work for the advancement of the Christian religion

Review of activities

The Trustees meet eight times throughout the year in question. There were four primary issues that occupied their attention. First, they continued to support Dr Hirpo Kumbi in his work to establish a training programme for church leaders in the Fellowship of Churches of Christ. The trust received donations of £10,000 in relation to that project which included of £5,000 from the Fellowship of Churches of Christ.

Second, they discussed a variety of issues relating to buildings in Wigston, Leicester, in Erdington, Birmingham and Ilford in London.

Third, they explored suggestions for additional trustees.

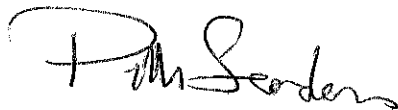

Fourth, they continued discussions on a merger between the CRT, the Fellowship of Churches of Christ and ForMission College.

The trust received donations from the Fellowship of Churches of Christ to help pay for the work of a consultant in relation to the development a training programme. The trust sold shares to the value of £20,000 to facilitate new loans. It also received £3,272 as income from investments.

The trust made a grant to the Fellowship of Churches of Christ to assist with administration costs.

Legal costs of £1,800 were paid during the year in relation to the proposed merger mentioned above. The trust received £2,527 in repayment of existing loans.
